sequence of the increased arrivals, holders were destrous of effecting sales at lower rates, ranging at 49 to 54s. for prime, and 54 to 56s. for mess.

The stock of lard in market was trifling, and the small quantities offering were held at firm rates, 34s. being paid for prime quality-holders now even ask a further advance. Butter and cheese are dull, with lower prices. There is a very small stock of tallow; small lots coming in sell freely; extra ship 37 to 38s. Naval Stores-There was nothing doing in Amer. ican Turpentine, or other articles of naval stores. Rice.-Sales of Carolina rice at 15s. 6d a 17s. 6d per tierce.

Tobacco. There is no change in tobacco, which continued to command previous rates.

Iron.-The iron trade is in an unsatisfactory state and but little doing. The Europa's advices acted unfavorably on Scotch pig.

NORTHERN MARKET.

The effects of the steamer's news on the northern markets, me and sufficiently developed to warrant any report.

THE CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

THOSE who have read Mr. Potter's Challenge for a Race, with the Pitot Boat ANN E. BEERY, would naturally suppose the boat which proposes to sail against her was a only the sauce size and cap city; but on the contrary, his boat, the R. B. POTTER, is Seconty One Tons, while the tornage of the ANN E. BEERY is but Furty None Tons. giving Mr. Potter's boat an advantage of Turnly Two Tons With this advantage, the large boat ought to beat nine; y-nine times out of one hundred, though not so go d'a model. I will take either of Mr. Potten's bets, and said my bout against his, according to the rules of boat racing in New York I would name Smithville as the starting point -Thence to sea to the point which shall be agreed up on and back to Smithville
