THOMAS LORING,	Editor	and	Proprietar:	TW0	DOLLARS	Per	Annum,	invariably	in	Advance.
						1.1	1000	1 1 15 . 1

WILMINGTON, FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1852.

VOL. 5.

FOR THE COMMERCIAL. MAY.

Tis May; 'tis fair bright smiling May, Strewing flowers in life's pathway. The hills and vales are clothed in green And nature wears a lively scene. The stately oak and the towering pine, Encircled by the graceful vine, The gushing rill, and the silvery stream Remind us of a fairy dream. Hark ! dost thou hear the merry thrush. Singing in the hawthorn bush. whilst the warbling mocking-bird With its varied notes are heard. The lark his morning lay doth sing, As high in the heavens on soaring wing. He tries to catch the first bright ray. of the fair dawning first of May. The flowers breath their incense sweet. The joyous streamlet's dance and leap. Through the flowery nook and shady dell. where the merry elves and sprites doth dwell. Sweet May, thy steps are every where. On the passing breeze, on the balmy air, On the mountain top, in the lowly brake In the wild-wood shade, in the sedgy lake, In the alpine glens, in the forest bowers, In the fair sunlight, in the cooling showers, There's worlds of poetry and love, Which speak of Him who reigns above. In the starry night, in the rosy morn, Voices of love are sweetly borne, That tells us of the Heavenly way, That leads to an eternal May.

bad, in regard to the appointment of Lu- 1st. She also brought 37 of the North Amether Bradish, Esq.' as the successor of the late Ex-Governer Young in the office of U. employees it would doubtless make more appeared to be but little injured. The pro- the frontier villages. stir.

"Bank and banker's sterling bills of ex change on England wère in great demand yesterday as soon as it became known that a single house had cleaned out the market at an advance of 91 per cent. It gave an impetus to stocks also, and the crafty origina- large quantities. tor of the excitation took advantage of it to sell out; this is the way that fortunes, are made and lost.

It was said vesterday that the St. Mary's Bank of Georgia was protested about 2 weeks ago for $20,000, and yesterday a notary in this city performed the same disagreeable operation because the bank had no. funds here to back up a check which it had drawn upon John G. Winter & Son. "The Cottoh mattet' is still active. The foreign news is regarded as unlavorable to large exportations of Flour and Meal, and shippers are very dainty in their purchases. Wheat is coming in copiously, and prices are falling. Corn continues unchanged ; Southerp mixed selling for 65 a 651 and yellow at 86 a 6"c. per bushel. New prime Pork sells rica's passengers.

peller Fremont, from Panama, arrived at San Francisco on the 25th ult.m A tremendous land slide had occurred on well on board.

the Calauras river involving the loss of a large amount of property belonging to G. H. Camr bell.

The news from the mines is very cheering. Gold dust is coming into San Francisco in Experiments were about being made in San Joaquin county in the cultivation of sugar.

The delegates to the Baltimore Convention were to leave about April 1st. Immense numbers of Chinese were pour-ng into San Francisco. Commercial affairs at Sacramento were very brisk, and the demand for goods was spirited. Joint resolutions had passed the Legislature, instructing the members of Congress to exert themselves to procure the passage of a bill establishing another semi-monthly line of Panama mail steamers. A bill prohibiting gambling had been defeated.

Advices from Honulula to March 10th state that a terrible eruption of the Manalod mountain, in Hawaii, had taken place. The lava poured in torrents down the side of the volcano.

The Government of the Sandwich Islands

The expedition against Burmah was to leave Calcutta and Madras on the 19th of wrong.'

The steamer Pacific, on her passage up, March. It was to consist of 6,000 troops, passed the wreck of the North America. She two ships of war, and 13 steamers. The S. Assislant Treasurer in New York. If stood upright with her masts, and her beam Burmuse troops, to the number of 20.000, there were any expectation of a change of and smoke-pipe in their proper places. She had assembled at Ragoun; and were ravaging in my family-alienate the affection of my The U. S. frigate Susquehanna arrived at Hong Kong on the 5th of March. All

DREADFUL CASE OF JEALOUSY. A Brief Story of a Blacksmith's -Revenge

BY FALCONBRIDGE.

Jealously is an awful thing-blighting, blasting and almost incurable. Jealously, is worse than a seven years' itch. the plague, or yellow fever. But, as bad, as is jealously. more deadly and damning are the presence and approaches of the libertine. He is the moving malaria, the portable plague, the secret assassin ; his breath is mildew and blight, capes your lips !'

his tongue the poisoned stiletto. Beware of him-denousce him-shoot him. I've heard, recently of a' case of guilty ove, and its consequences, that we are more than both to allow to die out and be lost to the rising generation. We do not resuscitate t from morb d motives to feed that atrocious ppetite, vulgar curiosity for the horrible and nlamous, but to point a moral, and-adorn a pretty good story. In some parts of New Hampshire, the land s monstrous sterile, and business proportionately stagnant. Under such adverse circumis kind of scarce; and in consequence thereof. may name"

One of the most dastardly, villainous acts known in the category of human rascality; trying to sow the seeds of discord, and strife. wife," continued the determinately cool and murderous smith.

NHR()

a rascal. I-a---!

'A rascal ?... You're a villain-a cowardly, Franklin. She brings 42 passengers. atrocious, double-dyed villain ! 'I am-i, am!' cried the calico-dealer; 'I know I aci !?

'We are alone,' said the smith, glancing around and wagging his hammer; 'not a soul to witness my revenge !' 'Oh ! don't ! for, God's sake ! I-a I'll-'You richly deserve a dozen deaths,' coninued the fearfully-agitated smith.' To knock out your brains here is too good for you.'

'Mur-murd----' you into powder before the second word es- Canton, being the shortest passage on record.

spare me for their sake-don't strike !' 'Your family ! bitterly answered the smith;

'why did you not think of that before you attempted to destroy me and mine ?' 'Don't-don't strike !' implored the poor wretch, as again the hammer was shifted from hand to hand, and again lifted over his since 1841. devoted, quivering head.

'I ought to kill you,' said the smith ; 'I has no intention of abolishing the First Vice-Royought to rid the community of such a villain, alty. and I'll do it !'

stances, it is not to be wondered that money thing for you; make any atonement you between the French and English governments.

I know it, Coldchisel-Tacknowledge my ARRIVAL OF STEAMER NIAGA 24.

NO. 35

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Advance in Cotton and Breadstuffs.

HALIFAX, April 28 .- The Royal mail steamer Niagara arrived at her wharf at 7 o'clock this mora-'Oh ! I acknowledge-I-a-I know I am ing, bringing dates from Liverpool to the 17th u April, three days later than these brought by the

> The Pacific had arrived out on the morning of the 15th, at 30 minutes past 6 o'clock, having been detained three hours by low tide.

> > ENGLAND.

Lord John Russell's friends, fearing his defeat in London, are trying to smuggle him in for Edinburg.

The Arctic expedition salled on Thursday, the 15th instant.

The New York clipper ship Witch of the Wave 'Don't call-don't raise a cry, or I'll crush arrived at London on the 15th, inst., in 90 days from Sir John Matherson, owner of the island of Oh ! spare my life-think of my family- Rona, on the west coast of Scotland, has offered it as a gift to the government for a penal settlement. Prof. Wilson has resigned the Professorship of Philosophy, in consequence of his age.

The census returns of Carlow, county, Ireland show a diminution in the population of one-sixth

Lord Eglington intimates that the Government

FRANCE. 'No--no-no, don't ! I-a-I'll do any- Le Siecle denies that any difficulty has occurred The Minister of Public Instruction has issue 'You will, eh ?' said the smith holding up orders to schoolmasters to assume manners and habits compatible with their profession.

EVA:

From the Lovisville Journal.

Here is an exquisite lay from one of the bright young birds that make the columns of the Louisville Journal as musical as a summer grove :

> THE INQUIRY. Spirit, tell me, who art thou, With thy calm angelic brow Sweetly shining on my soul, With a moonbeam like control, Till it leaps like waves by night, Neath the mellow chastened light Spirit, wheresce'er I stray, Thou art with me on my way. And the darkest hour grown bright, Gloried by thine angel-light; Tell me whence thy magic power Thus to cheer life's drearest hour ?

When above some page I bend, By the hand of genius penned, Then a brow all Heaven made, Bid's the poets beauties fade, And thine angel-face I read, Sill my soul from clay seems freed.

When I wander forth alone, Thy pure wing is o'er me thrown, And thou pointest to the sky, Telling me 'tis like mine eye, And the glory of thy smile Gladdens all the earth the while.

When I bow me in my prayer, Spirit, thou art softly there," And thy voice falls sweet and low, As a zephyr in its flow, While thine orisons arise Music breathings to the skies.

Spirit thou art passing fair, With thy starry eyes and hair, Glorious as the morning beam. Love-lit as a maiden's dream. With thy glory-beaming brow, Tell, oh ! tell me, who art thou ?

Spirit, list mine inmost prayer, Beautiful thou art and fair : Let thine angel-loveliness All my future being bless; Yet oh ! tell me whence thou art. Child of heaven, or of heart ? M. J. S.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, April 27, 1852. I have seen no estimate made, or reckoning kept, of the quantity of rain which has fallen on this island this spring, but it would the steamer North America. seem as if with other California imports we San Juan was healthy, and there was no at 17, and new mess at $18.75 a $19,00.-There are oceans of Lard at 10c. Beef sells smoothly at $6 a $7.25 for prime, and mess at 10 a $13.

The demand for consumption in the California market is small. It is à considerable item, to provision a steamer between this and Chagres. The Butchers bill for a single frip exceeds sometimes $1,200.

The Steamship United States, to connect with the Winfield Scott, has changed her day of departure for the new city of Aspenwall on the Isthmus to May 15th.

Our city trade presents very little of the animation usual in shipping. Some of our more ambitious dry-goods merchants are improving the time by systemizing their busi- the Asia. ness. Messis' Lee, Brewster & Co. originated, I learn, in 1213, the plan, still observed by a few large houses, of selling only one description of goods, viz. printed Calicoes .-Their idea was, I presume, that it was better to deal in one article well, then in a variety imperfectly. Now, they have another plan, though on the same principle. It is to have every variety under the same roof, but divided into different departments, with a distinct set of salesmen for each description of goods. A portion of Washington and Greenwich damper on the story by showing its impossi- slow to move, but, being moved hard to restreets in this city is swarmed with German residents, and temporary sojourners, among whom the Christian Colporteurs, speaking their language; try very hard to improve. but with little success on account of violent opposition made by the runners. Last Sunday a German missionary from Surinam, the Rev. Mr. Tank. came near losing his life at the hands of these runners because he invited a crowd of German emigrants to attend worship.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTHERN LIGHT.

Fifteen Days Later from California.

NEW YORK, Ayril 27 .- The steamer Northern Light arrived here shortly after 9 o'c'lk this evening. She left San Juan on the 19th Sth inst., with $50 political prisoners from the fence, and off he broke ! inst., and Havana at 6 P. M. on the 23d .- Algeria. She brings 300 passengers and a small amount of specie.

1st of April, by the Pacific.

The steamer Monumental City arrived at San Juan del Sud on the 13th of April, under charter of Mr. Vandenbilt, to take those passengers at that port who were ticketed for had issued an order for reciprocal duties, o certain articles, with the United States.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER FRANKLIN. 6 11. FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

· · · · · · · NEW YORK, April 27.

in the locks, and left Cowes on the 15th of it fell out that Coldchisel's wife was wont to April at 9 A. M. valuable carge of French goods, with $85,000 come of her lord and master could afford .n specie. Nothing of special interest had occurred in France or England since the sailing of The Niagara arrived out on the 13th .-Much anxiety is felt for the steamer Wash ington. 19 days from New York, and not arrived. An extraordinary statement has been made ty intimate. The Knight of the Yardstick by the captain of a Quebec vessel, to the effect that in the spring of 1851 he saw two wife of the smith so much coveted. She was vessels embedded in the ice, drifting towards weak, and he was lascivious; and, at last, ceived great attention at the Admirality .-The London Times, of the 14th, contained three columns of documents on the subject. That paper of the 15th, however, -puts a bility, and the probability that what the sist. These things continued to work along, captain saw was only a reflection of his own until the smith really began to believe that vessel from two different surfaces of iceburg. FRANCE.

The news from France possesses little in- he would be gone for a few days, and stepterest. The returns of the Bank are consid- ped out, accordingly. ered favorable.

The grand review of the army takes place n Paris on May 10th.

M. Emile Girardin, Editor of La Presse, full of ribbons, tapes, pins, &c., and his mouth has received official warning that a second notice will lead to the suppression of his tape-cutter and the smith's wife were getting dreadful aggravating case in the Granite Journal.

M. Martin de Strasburg. Councillor of the and cooing like "tirkle.doves" in the smith's Court of Cassation, has refused to take the little sitting room, There is no telling how oath of allegiance, and has resigned.

have been removed by a decree from Professorships in the University. The steamer Isly sailed from Gironde on

The agents of the Treasury had taken ted smith was thar ! The village was hushpossession on behalf of the State of the es-Her passengers left San Francisco, on the tates of Morceaux and Neuilly, being part of within the bosom of Coldchisel burned a rage the Orleans property. mil- ; in min PORTUGAL.

Advices from Lisbon, to March 31st. state ting gentleman cut his stick, bolted, dug out, that Saldanha and his colleagues had ten- ran as fast his legs and feet could carry him. dered their resignations, in consequence of He led off beautifully, but, though he was had refused to accept them, and had author-ized Saldanha to adopt any course he will be competitor was for bot a dollar assumes, in the eyes of no small portion of the inhabitants of those regions, the the hammer. size and importance of a miniature gold mine.

It so happened that a blacksmith, named Coldchisel, married himself a wife, altogether the prettiest woman in the entire settlement, thus being about the most dangerous piece

The steamer Franklin arrived at her wharf of property the blacksmith. or any other man, at half past eight o'clock this morning. from | could well get hold of, as all the philoso-Havre, She brings London dates to the phers. from King Solomon down to Tim. 15th. Liverpool to the 14th. and Havre to Lawrence have testified. Pretty women are the 14th. She was detained at Havre one vain, love show, shallow fobbery, gewgaws, day in consequence of the lowness of water and jimcracks; there may be exceptions. So

The Franklin brings 97 passeugers, and a shaws than the limited and hard-earned in-

This fact caused the harmony of the smith and his wife's marriage music to jingle out of tune-ergo, they come to words, and precious near blows!

A-neighboring shop-keeper had, for some time, been casting sheep's eyes at the fair wife of the sledge-hammer and anvil; and finally, the wife and the shop-keeper, got pretsold 'a thousand and one' of those articles the Davis's Straits, which vessels were believed they got so thick that the folks began to "noto be the ships of Sir John Franktin, has re- tice it." and, by-and-by, the son of Vulcan was apprized, that, for a married woman, his wife, the neighbors thought, was a little too lamiliar with Mr. Yardstick. The smith was a large body, and hence > his wife was a little too familiar with Yard stick. So one day he intimated to his wife

The coast being clear, the Knight of the along in the most agreeable manner, flirting far or long this tete-a-tete might have lasted, Wm. Michelet Quinet and Mickeewicz but any way, about midnight, quite unexpectedly like, in comes, or rather rushes; Coldchisel! Yardstick took the hint, and made a rush, managed to get out doors, over

Now came the tug of war lor the infuria-ed in sleep-quiet reigned without; but swong a two-pound hammer! The tape cut-

'Yes. yes, yes; I will ! Name the conditions-anything but take my poor life-anything but ruin my poor family !'

.Well.' asks the smith. 'what will you give? You know you are guilty you know I've got you in my power. I could; yes, and I preparing to give a fete to the President. ought, and I will-what shall I give ? 'A thing like you,' sneeringly said the smith, to be grawling around, sneaking into sigh for more of such fur-le-burbs and kicks a man's house, when he is out and gone-I've done bad !'

'Neglecting your own family,' bitterly continned Coldchisel.

'I know-I know I'm to be blamed-I'm a guilty wretch !?

'Trying to seduce the affections of a neigh- | sians. bor's wife.'

'Yes' it's villainous; I ought to be ashaned—I am ashamed.!

You ought to be assassinated, and I'll do cuss you !'

·Mur-murd -----

'Hush-h-h! Another word, and it's your last. Name what you'll do-what atonement you'll make, and, if I see, proper, I'll let you off."

Oh! name it yourself-name it yourself! entrance of persons expelled from France. I'm a poor man; I've got a few things-I've got some property !'

ded the wronged smith.

save my life.! Money! Money !' reiterated the smith that, having some business in Portsmouth. money is scarce-times are dull-you've wronged me, or meditated doing so-you deserve death. I've got you in my power; but after shutting up his shop, with his pockets HE, I LET, YOU OFF FOR A DOLLAR ? Roor Yardstick 'guessed it wouldn't,' and had a hand in these intrigues. full of blarney and moonshine. Well, the forked the dollar over. And so ended a State.-Boston Museum.

We perceive from a foreign paper that a criminal, who has been imprisoned for a considerable period at Presburg, has acquired a complete mastery over the violin. It has been announced lic. Doubtless, his performance, will be a solo on

RICH MEN IN BOSTON.

It appears from the tax list of Boston, for 1851, had been restored. of the most fiendish passion, and in his hand just published, that there are in that city seventeen individuals and corporations taxed on half a Egyptian railway. million and upwards. Nine on $400,000 and upwards: nineteen on $300,000 and upwards; fifty an adverse vote in the Cortes, but the Queen more nimble on his pins than his stalwart com- $200,000 and upwards, and one hundred and Forty-nine Provincial newspapers have been suppressed by government, since December.

A great drought prevails in the South of France. On Friday, in Paris, the National Guard were Great sensation had been, produced by the state-'No-no-no, don't! Stop-don't-don't, ment that the Russian Imperial ordinance sets down for God's sake! Name what I shall do- Henry V as King of France and the Count de Paris as heir apparent.

It was considered extremely probable that a proclamation of the Empire would be made before the 'I know-I know I am a villain-I know grand review on the 10th of May. Two thousand petitions had already been presented, asking the establishment of an Imperial Government.

RUSSIA.

Advices from Circassia state that the Russians had gained an important victory over the Circas-

GERMANY.

Hanover had declared in favor of a customs union with Austria.

The new constitution of Cassel provides for the establishment of two chambers, the upper composed of nominees of the crown, and the lower of 32 members elected by the people.

BELGIUM.

The Governor had given orders forbidding the

AUSTRIA.

It is officially announced that the external and Things? Property?' sneeringly respon- internal policy of Austria, will not be changed by the death of Schwartzenberg, who left a memoran-Will money do 3 Anything ; name it, and dum insisting upon the necessity of the policy he had adopted. He bequeathed all his moveable property to his illegitimate daughter.

PORTUGAL.

Accounts from Lisbon state that intrigues are on you're willing to offer some atonement .- foot between Portugal and Spain for a further cur-Yardstick comes over to the smith's house, Now, would it be igo much for you to pay tailment of constitutional government. The French consul, who recently perished in the steamer Porto,

NAPLES. 14.14.1

The Neapolitan State trials had been indefinitely postponed. ITALV.

Maldinia, an extensive banker of Bologna, had failed, reducing to beggary many of the first families of the city.

Letters from Florence state the orders for the withdrawal of the Austrian troops from Tuscany that he will shortly make an appearance in pub- had been commanded in consequence of inflammatory appeals being posted.

TURKEY.

Amicable relations between Turkey and Egypt Twelve thousand men were employed in the Interesting News from Barbadoes--Reported Discovery of a Portion of the Wreck of the Steamer President, etc. Boston, April, 30, 1852.

MUSICAL NOOSE (NEWS.) one string.

	aideness on the Isthmus	ized Saluania to adopt any course he	village well, his competitor was far bet-	I A C TO I DOWN DO CAL OF ALL	min to a transformed from Demonstra Acadi had had large consignments of its weather;	At 10 A. M., on Monday, the Northern	thought proper. He had accordingly ad-	ter bottom and in course of the first grand	Tater from MexicoRumoren Deleat of the	The steamer Levantine, from Berinuda, April large enough indeed, to materially drain its	Light exchanged signals with 'the Georgia,	lourned the Chambers to the 20th of May.	round of the village, so gained on the relax-	Tehuantepec Railroad Project. New ORLEANS, April 29, 1852.	23, reached Halifax on the 28th.
market and flood our own : for it is a fact that	steering south, and on Tuesday at noon with	The country was perfectly tranquil.	ing efforts of Vardstick as to convince thim	Letters from Vera Cruz dated April 17 state	The potato crop on that island is good.
		The Portugese War steamer Porto was	that his chance of escape was growing bean.	that the Takuantones Pailroad project had here	From Barbadoes we have accounts, taken from while the skies discharged their storm so	the linnois.	lost on the 31st of March, on her passage	tifully or learfully less! It was a desperate copiously and frequently upon this section	The California mails were to leave San		race: life and death depended on it! The	detented in the intention of great, mere being last winter the ravines of California mhana	Francisco on the 5th inst., by the Golden	36 in number, and all the crew except seven	dry goods man was thin and weak his cause	only one vote in its favor. The report, however,	ship's figure head, of unusual dimensions, was last winter, the ravines of California, where	Gate, for Panama.		bad, and his pursuer a powerful fellow, arm-		cast ashore on the inward part of the island. It rain was so much desired by the miners, and	UALIBADAIA AFFARD.	The I Charles Cabo Seciety of		Shooting of a Supposed Fugitive Slave-Fur-	had been originally fully eight feet, high, and is is usually so plenty that season, were com-	A committee had been appointed at San	Friends, arrived at Lisbon on the 9th of	equint to settle! It was in vain that fear	ther Particulars.	that of a Senator in the act of speaking. He is
Doto time las	Francisco for the relief of the North America's		and desperation lent him wings. for the bur-		partially bald, and holds a scroll in his right hand,
A second s
succe are two kinus of comment upon	had been sent to San Juan. The Northern	ducch had promised them an addition of and	ly smith and the deadly hammer were gain-	Ponce oncer Mugeley of the min of ben and	the left grasping a scarf which is partially thrown
Aossuth "very frank expression at pringfield,	Light sailed on the 2d of April, with $10,000	the government had intimated that the slave	ing upon him at every jump ! Seeing it use-	Ridgeley, of this city, was the party who shot the	over him. The papers conjecture, on what grounds
Mass. of his disapproval of the opposition	manth of provisions and stores	trade in the Portuguese possessions in Arrica	less to hy, the Knight of the Yardsuck, the	alleged fugitive slave at Columbia yestderday	we do not learn, that it may be a part of the ill-
		situlia graduany oc abonanca.	invader of another man's irreside, the guilty.	He was nursued by an excited crowd, but suc-	fated steamer President.
made to him and his mission by a portion of	Ling monante to built a Marchant's Ex.			ceeded in reaching Shrewsbury during the night,	The fever was gradually abating at Demerara.
the American people and press. One part	change.	Ceunt Buol Schauerinstein has been ap-	and begged for quarter.	and arrived in this city in the morning train regard his strictures as intrepid and true, the	Mad. Biscaccianti was giving concerts to	pointed Prime Minister of Austria.	'Don't-don't, for God's sake, strike !'	and arrived in this city in the morning train	Doth the Inspector General of Volice and Lieft.
other denounce him as an ingrate, greedy	crowded houses at San Francisco.	EGYPT.	The smith came at him-grasped the qua-	He says, after they had arrested the fugitive, they	Bott had died of it.
		The difficulties in Egypt between the Sub-	king calico-merchant by the throat with one	were surrounded by a crowd of negroes, and, in	FOODTALL IN DOGRAM and presumptuous. In Boston he would ap-	at of Baltimore is charged in the Francisco	lime Porte and Alla Pacha have been amica-	hand, and with the other firmly clenched the	order to intimidate them, as well as the prisoner,	KOSSUTH IN BOSTON.
pear to have many enthusiasite friends, de-	papers with having absconded with his ves-	bly arranged to the entire satisfaction of both	deadly-looking hammer! It was a fearful	who was making a desperate resistance, he drew	Boston, April 28Kossuth was received by termined "to nut him through in good shape"	sel and about $10,000 worth of goods, which	parties.	suspence, an awful crisis, and the trembling		the Senate and the House of Representatives, and Unon his set in N Wal sine have	bed have not on heard for Panama Noth-	CHINA.	poltroon felt it keenly.	ley's) finger between his teeth, and under a sud-open his return to New York city, he will, I	had been put on board for Panama. Noth-	The overland mail had arrived at London,	Don't-don't Coldchisel-don't strike !		as veronica of the president and sponter the doubt not. be welcomed by a large number	ing, at the last accounts, had been heard of	and a contract of the basel	(Come aller will als 12 analaim of the multh	den impulse of pain and excitement, he dischar-	replied in appropriate terms, passing a warm of our citizens.	his whereabouts.	ary. Bombay to March 15th, and Calcutta			eulogium upon Massachusetts, and then retired
	The steamer Fanana arrived at San Fran-		acts in civilized life.'	negro's body causing his instant death.	after being introduced to the members.
and no expression of opinion, good or	cisco from Panama with the mails on April	to march one		and a second	Book Providence and a second se	