From the Baltimore Sun. THE LUNDY'S LANE CELEBRATION. BUFFALO, June 27. An immense concourse of Whigs from all parts of the Union have been for the past 24 hours passing through this city on their way to the Falls of Niagara, to participate in the proposed celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Lundy's Lane to take place to-day.

Upwards of fifty thousand persons are now assembled at the Falls, including a number of military companies which are encamped. The weather is fine and the railroad company find it difficult to supply sufficient cars for the immense concourse.

At a quarter before 3 o'clock, just after passing the village of Yonkers, the thrilling cry of "Fire!" resounded from the centre of the vessel. A glance towards the engine room showed a column of smoke pouring up from the hatches.

The prospect of obtaining accommodations for so many persons is very poor, and large numbers will have to bivouac under the trees by return to Buffalo.

camped. After the review, which will occupy most of the morning, the people will assemble in the grove, where they will be addressed until 3 P. M., by Gov. Jones, of Tenn.; Senator Mangum of N. C.; Gen. Culm, of Tenn.; Hon. Solomon Foote, of Vermont. The celebration will be closed, and the convention adjourn sine die.

The boats in the vicinity of town will all be occupied for sleeping purposes, besides which a number of temporary buildings, plentifully supplied with straw, and tents, have been erected by the committee of arrangements. But the gathering has so far exceeded all expectation that all the extraordinary arrangements making will scarcely be sufficient to accommodate them.

BURNING OF THE STEAMER HENRY CLAY.

MELANCHOLY LOSS OF LIFE.

HEART RENDING SCENES.

The Final of a Race.

At a quarter before 3 o'clock, just after passing the village of Yonkers, the thrilling cry of "Fire!" resounded from the centre of the vessel. A glance towards the engine room showed a column of smoke pouring up from the hatches.

Panic and confusion soon seized the reins. The realization of the gloomy forebodings of the morning seemed to be at hand. Men, women and children were thrown into an awful state of confusion.

The Maryland delegation have formed in line, numbering over three hundred men, and make a fine appearance.

A delegation of Tuscarora Indians, with several old warriors who fought under the Gen. Scott at Lundy's Lane, attract great attention.

THIRD DISPATCH.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 27, 1 P. M.—The whole of this morning was devoted to the reception of delegates, who continue to flock in from all quarters.

The most attractive and interesting part of the celebration will take place to-morrow.—At sunrise a national salute will be fired; at 9 o'clock a review of the military by Gov. Hunt will take place on the eastern skirts of the town, about 100 yards from the cataract, in the vicinity of which the military are encamped.

Several ladies threw the end of a stern line overboard, let themselves down into the water, and sustained themselves by it until aid reached them; fortunately before the fire had become too weak to support them.
