Longstreet Presbyterian Church, on the Fort Bragg reservation, is known as the mother church in the Presbytery. It was organized in 1758 and two structures occupied the site prior to erection in 1847 of the building illustrated. The Rev.
Hugh McAden, early Presbyterian evangelist, conducted first services in the burial ground lie soldiers who fought in the Revolution, War of 1812 and the War Between The States. It got its name from its location on an early road that was relatively thickly settled.
