

Senior Citizens Rhythm Band performs for clubs first anniversary

Sr. Citizens Has 1st Anniversary

The members of the Happy Kimberly Park Senior Citizens Club celebrated its First Anniversary of the clubs formation Wednesday at the Kimberly Park Terrace Community Center on Oak Street. It was a gala affair, complete with speakers, a fabulous luncheon, and highlighted by the Senior Citizens Rhythm Band who played a wide range of familiar easy listening and gospel tunes. The band members were wearing gray bonnets and matching pinstriped dresses, indicative of days gone by.

The club was started by Mrs. Audrey Lowery, a TPP Home Health Aide. She said she saw the need for a club that the elderly residents of Kimberly Park Terrace could "call their own."

In the course of doing her job, Mrs. Lowery's idea caught on and on Oct. 21, 1975, 27 Kimberly Park Terrace members met to form the club.

Mrs. Maggie De Jarnette of 1303 Oak Street was elected as the group's first president. The group called itself the Happy Kimberly Park Senior Citizens Club because, according to Mrs. Lowery, "The club members felt that the name should reflect their happiness and pride in being residents of Kimberly Park Terrace. The group now has about 54 members.

The past year has been filled with activities for the city's elders. Highlights include a Christmas Dinner and Programs, last December, a Valentine party in February. They have had tours of the R.J.Reynolds Whitaker Park cigarette manufacturing plant and of the Joseph Schlitz Brewery, a Bicentennial Luncheon at Tanglewood Park, and the list keeps on going.

Guest speakers for the affair was Mr. Tommy Douthit, opening remarks were given by club President Mrs. Maggie De Jarnette and the club history was read by Mrs. Rosa Clardy. A beautiful solo was rendered by Mrs. Ruth Thompson. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Lorene B. Thomas and Mrs. Barbara Ferguson gave the closing remarks.

It was a very nice ending/beginning for a lovely group of people.
