Page 2 - The Chronicle - Saturday March 12, 1977 Slapped Woman Plans Suit

Continued from Page 1

Kinsley didn't stop talking, Martin "came over to me and stuck his finger in my face. I told him that he couldn't put his hands in my face because I had my constitutional rights, too. That's when he slapped me. I saw then that this man was mean and decided not to push for my rights."

......

1.1

Attorney Baker said that following the courtroom scene bailiff Martin took Ms. Diggs out of the courtroom "and used some profanity." Baker said he felt that Martin had exceeded his authority and often is "a little hot headed."

Martin, questioned about the slapping, refused to comment.

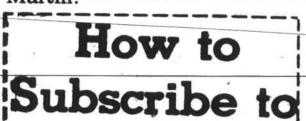

Mattie Diggs, a resident of Connecticut since 1967 when she left North Carolina and thus violated the terms of her parole, was being tried on that offense when slapped. She was under 18 months' suspended sentence for assault when she left.

She was being tried for another offense in February of this year in Connecticutt when officials there yielded to extradition procedures from North Carolina. She is now_serving the 18 month sentence in Women's Prison (also known as the North Carolina Correctional Center for Women).

Recalling the courtroom scene, Ms, Diggs said that one thing surprised her more than anything else. "I just can't understand how a courtroom full of black people could watch a big deputy like him (Gerald Martin) and not say a word," she said.

Mattie is now looking for a lawyer to sue Gerald Martin. Attorney Baker said that as a local attorney he could not handle "that kind of case." Baker said it would affect his other cases in the town. But he said he did show Ms. Diggs how to prepare the necessary legal papers for the suit so she could file them as a pauper when she got to prison. The papers yet unfiled, Ms. Diggs hopes she will find "a lawyer who is not afraid to tackle Gerald Martin."

Conscience

Continued from Page 1

ment honestly proclaim support for human rights as a matter of foreign policy while allowing domestic violations of human rights to continue under the guise of the administration of an unfair criminal justice system?

Yes, my conscience also compels me to speak out for I am a Christian minister and I have the faith that you, Mr. President, will not allow this repressive hypocrisy to continue. In fact, we are equally as well "prisoners of conscience."

Will you not speak out for us? Will you not use your good office to bring about our release?

I pray that you will with speed respond positively to my request.

For the Wilmington 10 and all U.S. Political Prisoners,

In Christ-name, Rev. Benjamin F. Chavis Jr:

McCain Prison

WSSU Rams Honored

Continued from Page 1

played more minutes in the tournament than previously in his entire college career.

The Rams employed only seven players in the three games while opposing coaches used as many as twelve players to no avail.

In addition to the other awards the Ram cagers were named the "Best dressed team" and WSSU football and wrestling star Reginald Sherard received the John S. Chase award as the CIAA's outstanding scholar athlete nations winningest active coach with 593 victories during his illustrious coaching career.

He has led the Rams to three NCAA Division II playoff berths and captured the national title in 1967 with Earl "the Pearl" Monroe and Bill English leading the way.

In accepting the award Gaines gave credit to the institution, his team, and the Families

If you have any of the items below to donate to a needy family, please call 724-0258 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Monday through Saturday after 2 p.m. Phone 767-8102. Somebody Needs Your Help!

When taking a family please refer to your choice by the number indicated beside it.

2. Eldelry woman disabled. She heats with wood and coal. She needs a gas stove for cooking. She also needs wood and coal. She is presently cooking on a small wood stove in the bedroom.

3. Mother of five [5]. All teenagers in one room. They will be moving into a six-room [6] room house and need everything. Such as stove, refrigerator, double beds, box springs, curtains etc.

4. Disabled person needs a small living room chair.

Invest in your Community... Subscribe to the CHRONICLE

-Clip and mail

Winston-Salem Chronicle P·O· Box 3154 Winston-Salem, N·C· 27102

] 1 year ...*8.³²] 6 months..*4¹⁶

(payable in advance)

Name Address City & State Zip Code

The W-S Chronicle	outstanding scholar athlete. For leading his team to a record eighth CIAA crown and increasing their record number of tourney victories to 43 against 20 losses	community for making it possible. "I only hope that we can continue to win in the future," he said.
nume address	Gaines received his fifth tournament outstanding coach award.	PUSH state zip PHONE 723-9863 STOP IN AT SUITE 603 PEPPER BLDG.	Gaines a 1945 graduate of Morgan State College where he starred in football, basketball, and track, has been the Rams basketball coach for 31 years and is the	Continued from Page 1 ship Conference (SCLC). The organization has been in- strumental in bringing about positive change for minori- ties.
* NOW AVAILABLE * at REDUCED COST!
	BUSINESS CARDS	top by our office At Our catalog.
Custom-Designed Cards In Sets Of 500 or 1000 The Winston-Salem Chronicle 603 Pepper Building

Phone: 722-8624

