

YOU AND THE STARS

by Sylvia Halrston

ARIES—March 21-April 20

After a whirlwind month, you may now begin to feel a little tired or emotionally strained and may want to relax and rest. Emphasis shifts to your home and domestic matters. Arrange to spend more time with family during this last part of this cycle. Arrange to visit with relatives; bury family feuds if necessary; you will gain through family connections now.

Taurus—April 21-May 20

This is the period of the month when you settle into some new affairs. You'll want to make plans and discuss issues, plan and organize. You like to get attention from others now and your knowledge and wisdom will attract new acquaintances. You are cheerful, enjoying family and friends, and feeling that life is good and quite full now.

GEMINI—May 21-June 20

This week is by far the best period of the month for you. Your perspective widens. You are more sure of yourself and about certain aspects of your life... your love life in particular. This makes a better person of you. Make the most of this splendid Jupiter-Mercury cycle. Wedding bells will ring for many of you. You continue to make progress financially and may blend a business-pleasure trip, but mostly it is pleasure travel that is accentuated now.

CANCER—June 21-July 22

On this day, the Sun enters your sign and you should start to notice a change. You will feel more confident, optimistic and back in the mainstream of your life. You can start to work on plans for expansion in what you want in matters of career, money and personal relationships. Your particular wish has every chance of being fulfilled during this period.

LEO—July 23-August 22

You are more than usually hard-working during this period and can expect to make reasonable, if not remarkable, progress with improved working relationships. You are in a restrictive period now and unforeseen inhibitions make you grouchy and difficult to get along with. Avoid taking risks with money; save where you can; speculation is not favored now. Wait for a better period, which is coming in July.

VIRGO—August 23-September 22

This may be the best period of this month for you as you raise your eyes from the mud and make an effort to be more agreeable with everyone. Doing this will be beneficial to you. Jupiter is a big asset to your career and work area now which will help you to extend your good mood and feeling of accomplishment. Virgos who are eligible, could attract a new romantic relationship as your personal life is especially accentuated now.

LIBRA—September 23-October 22

You will be in fine form during this period. Your emotions are calmer and many of you are reaping rewards for efforts of the past year and should see significant changes for the better in career and work area. A definite trend toward happier days is here for you. Personal relationships should have improved by now also and you'll probably wine and dine out many times. Go to it and have fun now!

SCORPIO—October 23-November 22

The spiritual side of your life is accentuated during this period and you may have reason to do some deep thinking about yourself and your life. You may be a little bored with material values and want to take a look at your inner-self now. Open your mind to new things and accept reality where you find it.

SAGITTARIUS—November 23-December 22

This should be an expansive period for Sagittarians; you may sense a new beginning in the air. Personal and family relationships, social activity and financial plans should all proceed favorably and gains are distinctly possible during this period. This is a gregarious cycle and social appetites are strong. Watch out that you do not over-indulge in food and drink and talk to those who should be avoided.

CAPRICORN — DECEMBER 22-January 19

There is accent placed on the personal side of your life at this time, and less emphasis on business activity. There are good opportunities for pleasure now. Romance is in the picture for those eligibles. Married Capricorns will have domestic harmony. Show some genuine love, give a gift to someone special!

AQUARIUS—January 20-February 18

Time flies now as you enjoy this sociable season. Later you will be able to look back on this period as having been extremely pleasing and gratifying—not that it will all be a bed of roses. There may be times when you'll wonder if some of this activity is worth while. You excel when meeting new and interesting people. Enjoying sociable crowds is part of your living pattern, so you are busy, busy. Family relationships and property deals are also favored.

PISCES — February 19-March 20

You may keep busy to the point of exhaustion. While you may not make great strides financially, you are now able to do your work with more elation and keep up the pace... getting a second wind. This cycle is also good for your romantic life, as all is well in this area now. Your circle of friends is widened during this cycle. By the end of June you will be more balanced and a much happier person.
