La Terre XXI

"Experience In Elegance"

Winston-Salem's newest club, La Terre XXI, which opened on July 8th, is described by co-owner Ron Goodwin as a "multi-faceted entertainment center."

The club, located on 28th Street in the building formerly occupied by The Nile, offers disco, dancing, live entertainment, dining facilities, a game room, and accommodations for receptions and private parties.

The name "La Terre XXI", which means "Earth in the 21st Century," was coined by Goodwin's partner Ted Fields, who, like Goodwin, is a native of Washington D.C. "I wanted to call the club Right on Time," Goodwin recalls.

La Terre XXI is not a private club; no memberships are available. Goodwin indicated that Nadir Inc. may consider offering memberships within a few months, but first they want to develop the club's potential, so that they will have something to offer members. "In order to be successful, a club down here needs three or four thousand members," says Goodwin.

The owners want community involvement in their new business. Besides offering dinner and a place to party, they hope that La Terre XXI can be of service to worthwhile causes in the community. The club might be offered to a group such as the YMCA on a week night for a fund-raising talent show. Goodwin mentioned the possibility of having a senior citizens' night, and a Saturday morning "Kidie Disco" dance for ages 8-14.

La Terre XXI opens at 11:30 a.m. and offers a buffet luncheon "All You Can Eat" until 2:30. They serve dinner, with a menu offering such delicacies as baked flounder stuffed with South Carolina red rice, from 5-11 p.m. The club regularly features live entertainment, such as former Playboy Bunny Sheila Horne, who appeared recently, and says Goodwin: "We are in the process of hooking up a house band."

YOU AND THE STARS

by sylvia hairston

ARIES—March 21-April 20
If you have not taken a vacation, this is a good time to do so. A jubilant attitude will bring friends and associates back into your social circle. You may have hope now as loved ones give you more support; you may even increase attempts to undo bad habits. Everything adds up to an optimistic outlook. Important contacts can be made with superiors, indicating further opportunity.

TAURUS—April 21-May 20
Enjoy this cycle; get out in the evenings with loved ones. Despite the responsibility of family, they can be a source of joy during this period. Plan parties and cook-outs; above all try to offset one of your cold, sarcastic moods with a younger person. This is a good cycle to improve your love life and—if you haven't by the end of June—you have another chance now. Money matters will be less of a hassle now.

GEMINI—May 21-June 20
Take time out this week to recharge your energy; your mind may be popping with new ideas. Travel plans in connection with your work or for pleasure may be made. In the meantime, get as much rest as you can and enjoy light pleasures. Your bank balance looks healthy and there seems to be no change in your working area. Being a dual sign, you may take on a second career or income opportunity. Gemini's often have more than one career at the same time.

CANCER—June 21-July 22
HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
You who were born this week have sensitive natures and require encouragement and appreciation. You have a great dislike of being dictated to, but are most devoted and faithful when treated with confidence. During this period your home life and work may take on more interest than you give it. You may try to give proper attention to both areas. Travel is high on the agenda for you now. New projects started now will meet with success later in the month. Career matters may press you and some of you need to improve your public relations image, especially if it's useful in your field of work.

LEO—July 23-August 22
You may have a chance to show off your executive ability during this period as you attract popular people and causes to your side. You may get some jolts in the financial area, but despite pressureful occurrences, your finances look stable enough. You might take a short trip on the spur-of-the-moment for much needed rest; the sea shore would be ideal for this. Take precaution if you drive during this period, especially around mid-month.

VIRGO—August 23-September 22
Everything works in your favor during this period as long as you watch a tendency to be quarrelsome. An outside interest may be in conflict with your home-life. You can go for yourself during this period as expanding energy in your work area offers you upward trends. Your financial picture looks rosy as doors are opened to you. Share your good fortune with loved ones. The stars are in your favor now.

LIBRA—September 23-October 22
Plans for a long distance trip may fall into place for you during this period; this can be a vital and active month in many respects for you. Barring adverse occurrences, this is a super time to catch up on correspondence and push for that presents itself. You can be convincing in the charm department now and satisfy your desire for popularity. The combination of aspects point to a favorable month where intellectual pursuits get top billing.

SCORPIO—October 23-November 22
There are alterations coming in one way or another during this period, either through a property transaction or in your personal life. In any case, you have the green light to channel your energy in the proper way. It's a good time to change the decor of your home in order to expend extra or nervous energy.

where your career and superiors are concerned, as personal involvement may coincide with career or business activity.

SAGITTARIUS—November 23-December 21
The beneficent planets join together in a happy trio for those of your sign during this period. This is a lucky month, one in which hopes and wishes can be realized. Try to get together with friends and start a new association. Respond in a
