St. Paul Revival

Dr. Edward E. Jenkins, pastor of St. James United Methodist Church of Darlington, South Carolina, will be the guest speaker at St. Paul United Methodist Church's annual revival which will be held nightly from Wednesday, September 28 through Sunday morning, October 2. The theme for the revival is "Reach Out And Touch Somebody's Hand." Oldtime favorite hymns will be led at each service along with the revival theme song "His Name Is Wonderful" by Mrs. J.D. Ashley, revival coordinator and evangelism chairperson. Devotional services will begin each evening at 7:00 p.m. and will be followed by the regular services at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Jenkins holds the bachelor and doctor of divinity degrees from Claflin College, Orangeburg, S.C., and the master of divinity degree from Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia. He has served as minister of many churches in S.C. and was formerly district superintendent of the Florence and Columbia districts. He is a trustee of Wofford College in Spartanburg, a member of the S.C. Conference Board of Evangelism, chairman of the conference committee on nominations, a member of the board of directors of Darlington Home for Boys and a hearing officer for Darlington County Schools. He is a Mason and a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Rev. J.W. Gwyn is not pastor of St. Paul United Methodist Church.
