

Azzia Wagner's Social Whirl

Veteran's Disco

Last Saturday in early observance of Veteran's Day (early on the scene) the Legionaires at American Legion Post 128 had the "Legionaires Party Fever" as Thomas "Sweet T" Lytle spun a disco that was out of sight! Getting on down and partying were socialites Essie Flowers, Barbara Gates, Constance "C.T." Thacker, Rolanda "R.O." Rush, Annie P. Witherspoon and Priscilla Gentry. Meantime Curtis

"Stonewall" Campbell escorted lovely Cindy "Brick House" Grace to the Veteran's Day disco. Socialites Leon D. Kay and Denise Adams, Curtis Canty and Valerie Pollard were checking out the scene as were Linda Samuels and Emerson Duren, Robert Thompson and Jeanette Carothers. Taking care of business bartender was working tux was James "Mr. Charming" Grace III that was entertaining everybody, especially his mother the charming Mrs. J.R. Grace Jr. Meantime Steve Reynes Norris Sutton, Ronald Payne Joe Burke did it up and of course Donald "Mark IV" Johnson came out to party as did Odell Rucker, and Deleanor Matthews. Ronald "Mr. Separator" Payne was getting off to the sounds as were Gloria Atwater and Willa Johnson. All in the disco was a blast. Now don't forget that Herbert L. Sligh said that they were having a ball!

Mrs. Odessa Perry

She Gets A Bundle For Selling Chronicle Subscriptions

For selling subscriptions to the CHRONICLE, Mrs. Odessa Perry earned over one hundred dollars to add to the treasury of her Prayer Poem social club. Mrs. Perry, shown here receiving a check from Chronicle secretary, Janice Gilliam, sold 37 subscriptions in less than one week. The Chronicle, which will pay $100 for every 30 subscriptions, invites clubs and organizations to help their treasuries grow as they help the CHRONICLE circulation grow.

In 1869, Samuel Wolcott wrote the well-known hymn, "Christ For the World We Sing." It speaks of how we are to love one another in Christ.

Christ for the world we sing! The world to Christ we bring With joyful song; The new-born souls, whose days, Reclaimed from error's ways, Inspired with hope and praise, To Christ belong.

Assist in the bringing of the world to Christ. Take a friend to church this week.

1. Love an awesome thing! We are expected to love those who steal, those who cheat, those who are unjust, and those who are unloving. The list could be endless, for God's limits are endless... That's why, in spite of all we do, God even continues to love us.

2. Love is life's leaven. Love, it has been aptly said, "makes the world go around." It does just exactly that. If it were not for a little bit of loving forgiveness, acceptance, apology and making things right on the part of all of us, our world would seem to stop. Love, then, is like a leaven in life's lump.

3. Love is God's life in us. Whenever we "love one another" we are doing nothing more than letting God's life in us shine through.

WSSU-Past, Present, Future

Winston-Salem State University -- Past, present and future...and the thoughts and views of the school's new chancellor Dr. Douglas Covington are to be featured this Sunday evening on the WTOB news program "Feedback."

Dr. Covington came to W.S.S.U. this summer, replacing retiring Chancellor Kenneth R. Williams. The 42 year old new chancellor has openly worked to improve the University's ties to the community...and is hoping to be able to answer a number of questions from students, faculty, staff, and members of the entire Reverend Donald Darby was best man. Ushers were: Ernest LeSaine, Johnny Gattison, cousin of bride; John LeCost; Danny Cathcart; Thomas Baldwin, brother of Groom; Kenneth Boyan; Robert Caldwell, cousin of Groom; and Aubrey Cannady Junior Usher, son of the bride. Children Attendants were: Little Miss Andrea Ramseur, niece of groom and Master Norvell Gattison, cousin of Bride.

Chantilly type lace with Pearls highlights her romantic "total look" gown of Sataglo. Lace and pearls outline the Queen Ann Neckline and applique the empire bodice and ruffle cuffed - bishop sleeves. An overskirt effect is created by lace on the skirt and chapel train, which are richly hemmed with lace. The full length mantilla is lace bordered with blusher.

The couple with live in Winston-Salem.

They warmed up the cool side of La Terre XXI last evening in Stephanie's Private dining room as Myra Buxton celebrated her 7 birthday with super class! Among the many invited guests were the R.J. Roundtrees, The Reginald Scarboroughs, The Emory Joneses, The Chico Clarks, and Mr. Braxton Hairston III. Keeping the "spirits" flowing and the glasses filled was Gary Terrell who made sure that each socialite got a choice of beverages.

Adding that "extra glow" and warmth to the affair were socialites Curtis Martin, Robin Martin, Rodney Johnson, Lemuel Stinson and Carl "Mr. D.C." Brown (all the way from the capitol!) Sparkling socialites Cynthia Russel, Margaret Polk and Arthur Parks, Marsha Gary and Tony Moore, Linda Griggs, Mabel Kelum and Norman Perry and the lovely Rhonda Johnson put extra sparkle into the party! The delectable menu consisted of relish trays, potato salad, delicious roast beef and crispy delicious fried chicken - yummy! Now of course "Chef-boy-Ar-dee" Ron Goodwin was responsible for these delicacies as I personally watched him in amazement slice the roast beef while sharply attired in a 3 piece dior. What a chef!

Simultaneously, out in the main ballroom a "Ram Victory Disco" was hot on the tracks" with D.J. "Captain Marvelle" from WSSU who kept socialites like charmers Renee Phillips, Patricia Smith, Rosalina Smith, Vickie Glenn, Anneice Pearson, and Joyce Moses "out there on the floor"! Signing into the victorious affair was Marty "the man" Penn escorting his Sandra "Lady" Tobias! Really having a ball was Terry "Mr. T." Townsend Sr., Alexander "Al" Beatty, Walter Evans, and Peggy Thompson, also the charming Elaine Browne.

Everything came to a dead halt and everyone silenced themselves as the
