

Azzie Wagner's Social Whirl

As the Christmas tree sparkled in a multiplicity of beautiful assorted lights, urban Housing, Inc. decided that it was the perfect atmosphere for their pre-Christmas party for employees and their guests both locally and out of town.

Prior to a delectable feast of baked chicken with dressing, garden peas, whole kernel corn, macaroni and cheese, tossed salad, punch, hot chocolate cake, the socialite housing developers, indulged in a cocktail party.

At the "executive table" were the president of Urban Housing Attorney David H. Wagner and charming wife, Mollie, and the vice president Smilie Wagner and lovely wife, Ruby.

Hailing from other housing developments managed by Urban Housing were the president of Urban Housing Attorney David H. Wagner and charming wife, Mollie, and the vice president Smilie Wagner and lovely wife, Ruby.

For a flair of an evening and stepping gingerly out of uniform and the hospital as the Kate Biting Nurse's Alumni Association held their annual Christmas party at the night spot in town La Terre XXI!

Enjoying the festivities was James "Mr. Tire" Shaw and his "darling Clementine," mesdames Helen Martin and Betty Miller. The Thomas Harbor and the Elliot Browns. Of course Mr. and Mrs. Herman Coates were there too!

Also in attendance were Dr. and Mrs. David K. Hedgley, Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Irvin Jr., the charming Mrs. Joyce Paul and sparkling Mrs. Mirriam D. Hairston. Taking time from his business was William "Mr. Gulf No- Nox" Wade and the charming Mrs. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. John Early Johnson enjoyed the festivities as did Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mickens. Socialites Sharyn Caldwell, Adrian and Beverly Toney, Jacquelyn White, Deleanor Matthews, Odell Rucker and Brenda Robinson got on off too! From the Big "B" (Buffalo-New York) came dazzling socialite Cassandra Tate. Adding that Christmas spirit was Mr. James Gilliam from "across the border" of Spartanburg (S.C.) Now of course no Christmas tree would have been complete without dazzling ornaments Brenda Wagner, Yvonne Bryson, and Marcella Latham. Keeping it all together on the door was Big "D.C." John. And we all know that "Chaf Boy-Ar-Dee" Ron Goodwin and Mr. ARA himself Tony Couch were on the scene after all.

The co-ordinator of this enjoyable affair was Ms. Beverly Toney and believe me, she really did a dy-no-mite job. She was assisted by Ms. Brenda Robinson—both secretaries at Urban Housing. Gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. S.T. Wagner from the employees. And it all happened at La Terre XXI!

came Mr. Hardy B. Parker, manager of Rosehill Gardens Apts. in Fayetteville (better known as "Bragg Country"). Mr. Warnie Dixon came from Lakeview Terrace in Greenville and Ms. Clara Johnson brought Christmas cheer from Reidsville. Now of course everyone knows that absolutely no apartment complex could survive without the maintenance of Johnny Neely, Eugene Mickens and Earl...

So between Jim "Mr. Tire Shaw" and Wade "Mr. No-Nox-Gulf" the party had fuel to keep it going and wheels to keep it rolling. The party was fantastic too.

After the party, socialites jammed and of course, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Believe me it was Christmas time in the city! Early—that is! Of course, the affair was enjoyed by all.

Alta Vista Garden Club Meet

The Alta Vista Garden Club held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. Odessa Perry, 2000 Cannon Street, Sunday, Dec. 11, 1977. Many comments were made on the beautiful decorations, the elaborate color-schemes, and the warm, happy moods of the holiday houses and their hostesses. A Christmas dinner party was held Dec. 15th at the same address. Mrs. Marie Cureton, Mrs. Marion Faulkner and Mrs. Odessa Perry were hostesses for the banquet. They prepared many delectious foods, snacks, and desserts which were served buffet style. Officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Louise King, Pres.; Mrs. Janie Thomas, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Marion Wallace, Sec.; Mrs. Alberta Singleton, Treas.; Mrs. Juanita Penn, Acting-Reporter.
