Couple Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Mr. & Mrs. J.P. Neal celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon. A large group of relatives and friends, including three of the couple's seven children and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, were on hand to commemorate their after-Christmas wedding, which took place December 27, 1927 in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Neal wore a long yellow gown, a fitting costume for one's golden anniversary. To the question "What advice would you give to others on how to stay married fifty years," the Neals could not decide on one answer, but their friends enthusiastically supplied it for them: "Love!"
