Though the temperature was in the 30s outside, a breath of spring kissed the air inside the M.C. Benton Convention Center last Saturday evening as twelve beautiful young ladies made their official bow to society at the Iota-Phi Lambda Sorority's 26th Annual Debutante Cotillion with Beta Alpha Chapter hosting the elegant affair.

Prior to presentation of the individual debutantes, Tiny Tots Nursery under the direction of Mrs. Ernestine Cathcard did a "miniature" dance rendition called "Seven Steps" followed by the presentation of 15 "Debs of Tomorrow" and their escorts who danced the traditional and graceful "Minuet."

The Pelatis Auxiliary Honor Guards of Beta Alpha were introduced and THEN the "Highlight of the Evening" commenced to transpire as each deb was escorted through the flower bedecked arch, presented by her father or other close relative as she took her graceful and formal debut to society. She walked in splendor, poise, beauty and charm down the aisle with her marshal and presenter. The official welcome to society at this point was made by Madame Lillian L. Martin.

Debutantes and Marshals then rendered a most graceful and beautiful cotillion. THEN, the "Peak and Epitome" of the evening came as Soror Flora Alexander presented awards to the runners up and Miss Debutante of 1978.

Third Runner-up was Miss Kiristi Louise Crockett - granddaughter of Mrs. Ralph Stovall - escorted by Mr. Herman Currence. Second Runner-up was Miss Terri Elaine Wall - daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wall Jr. - escorted by her brother Marvin Wall. Miss Wall also received the award as Best Deb Dancer and her escort received the award as Best Marshal Dancer and Most Co-operative Marshal. First runner-up was Miss Donna Ontene Matthews - daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton O. Matthews - escorted by Mr. Samuel K. McFadden, II. In addition to being first runner up Miss Matthews also received the award "Miss Congeniality." Receiving the award as the "Most Co-operative" Deb was Miss Angela Virgine Diaz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan G. Diaz, her escort was Mr. Leland D. Lambson, Jr. Each runner-up, in addition to awards, received lovely bouquets.

The "Crowning Glory" of the evening transpired as Miss Mona Viola Reynolds (Miss Debutante 1977) placed the glistening crown of jewels upon Miss Barbara Lynn Young - daughter of the Robert L. Youngs - as Miss Debutante of 1978. Miss Young, a sophomore at Kennedy High School was escorted by Mr. Logan Todd Burke.

When asked by Miss Young how it felt to be Debutantes and their escorts dance during the Cotillion. The dances were choreographed by Mrs. Betty Newell.

Donna Matthews is named first runner-up by program chairman Flora Alexander. Her escort is Samuel McFadden II.

Moles Induction - Fashion Revue Held At Hilton

The Underground Hilton was the exotic setting for the Winston-Salem Chapter of the Moles on Sunday, March 5th, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

As a final touch, the hostesses presented a "surprise" souvenir to each guest.

Hosts and Hostesses were Dr. and Mrs. Luritz S. Watts.

Following a three course dinner shared by Moles and Mules and a brief business session, Mrs. Lois B. Hauser and Mrs. Mattie Clark were inducted into the local chapter. Amid the arrangement of emerald green and snowy white decorations, Mrs. Iola Dobson, President, conducted the impressive ceremony. Assisting Mrs. Dobson were Moles Mabel Dillard, Burthell Hoffer, Ida Williams, Ann Dew, Barbara Hayes, Irene Hairston, Consuella Greenwood, Florence Creque and Velma Watts.

The two inductees were joined by their husbands, Dr. C.B. Hauser and Dr. Thomas Clark for the concluding festivities.

The highlight of the featured entertainment was "trans-seasonal" Fashion Revue. Moles modeled fashions for evening, lounge wear, street and casual wear. The main emphasis was placed upon adaptability of fashions which make the easy transition from winter to spring and summer.

Serving as commentator was Mole Irene Hairston. Guest Models were Moles Jean Webber and Johnny Bullock from Charlotte and Carrie Shoffner from Rocky Mount. Creque, Dr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Oliver, Mrs. Irene Hairston, Mrs. Consuella Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland S. Watts.

Sorority Sponsors Miss Sweetheart

The Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority presented its first Little Miss Sweetheart Program on Sunday, February 19, 1978 at the Galilee Baptist Church.

The contestants were as follows: Jewel Rayshell Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Butler, Latoya Davis, daughter of Mrs. Addie Davis, Satonya Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Monica Frazier, daughter of Ms. Sandra Frazier, granddaughter of Mrs. Ciesta Funderburke, Erica Garvens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garvens, Yvette McCloud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen McCloud, Teleah Michelle Mickle, daughter of Geraldine Yancey and David Mickle, Deborah Roane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roane, Meteza Royal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Skipwith, Yvonne Skipwith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Skipwith.

The processional included sketches of each of the contestants as they marched in long white dresses carrying red sweethearts. After the processional Little Miss Sweetheart 1978 was crowned by Soro Millie Davidson. Yvette McCloud was crowned as Little Miss Gamma Phi Delta Sweetheart 1978. Her court consisted of the second place winner, Jewel Rayshell Butler, and the third place winner, Donnica Skipwith. The first, second, and third place winners were awarded savings bonds. All of the contestants were given gifts.

Sorors Ida Michael, Larnetra Richardson and Velma McCloud served as members of the program committee. The Mistress of Ceremonies was Soror Pheon Beal. The program was closed with remarks by the Basileus of Alpha Upsilon Chapter, Soror Ida Simmons.

The members of Alpha Upsilon Chapter would like to thank all persons that made the program a success.

CLUB NEWS

Top Ten

Lady Disco, the musical Genie of Winston-Salem and the Fox Lounge is an Aries born star. Disco Cloudy along with Captain Marvel enhanced last Saturday night with the best music sounds for the Top Ten Social Club's 9th anniversary dinner party at the Downtowner Motel Ballroom.

The Top Ten Social Club was just beginning to get the spirit when a major blackout came about for most of the downtown. Disco Cloudy's audience was left in the dark shouting "flashlight", a favor from the Parliament.

Dual Anniversaries Celebrated

by Thelma Small
 Special to the Chronicle

Dual 37th anniversaries of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Lash and Mr. & Mrs. Casper Glenn were held in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Lash, Polk Road. An phenomenal success hardly expresses the party that had somewhat the resemblance of an elaborate wedding reception. Neither of the couples had ever personally witnessed a wedding reception. Their weddings had both been quiet with no aftermath.

The influences of the Mrs. J. Lee Keiger, the R.J. Reynolds family, and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Sprunt possibly had its bearing on the effect and somewhat elaborate manner in which the guests were entertained.

Appreciation of the finest prompted friends and guests to add to the decoration and festivities of the room with the most fascinating flower arrangements. The living room was the first attraction with candle-lighted sconces, which dated many years ago in existence. Here three beautiful flower arrangements were the eye catcher.

The next room, dining area, featured baby blue furniture and three sided walls of the same color in drapes enhanced by the glass ceiling. Here the guests sipped cocktails from silver goblets served from an aged silver punch bowl. Service of rumballs accompanied the cocktails. These sent from Ft. Lauderdale by Mrs. Cliff McReynolds.

Arrangements gracing the house were sent by Mrs. Mattie Thomas, yellow roses; Mrs. Archie Davis, glads and mums; Mrs. Verna Rudolph, car-
