Whatever Happened To The Class Of

Yvette McCullough Staff Reporter

The senior year in high school can be a time for making preparations for graduation and making plans for college. It can also be a time for deciding ambitions, signing yearbooks and also selecting the class superlatives. The superlatives range from the one most likely to succeed or to the most popular to the best looking giri or the most athletic Murrell has worked for the housing Authority for seven years and has been manager for two years. She has a daughter who is a second grader at Mineral Springs Elementary.

In the future Pamela would like to continue working with the housing authority and continue working toward her degree at Winston-Salem State University in Business Administration.

Rosa Belton West won the honor of "Most Dependable" and has found that the title has followed her through life.

"Being "Most Dependable has influenced me to help others in my teaching profession, and also at my present job in the recreation department."

Rosa is a graduate of North Carolina Central University with a B.A. Degree in Elementary Education. She taught for three years in the Burlington City Schools, and is presently employed at the Recreation Department for the city. She is also presently attending grad-
