Brown Gets Phd.

Joe B. Brown, Jr., a Statesville native, was among the one hundred thirty-six doctoral candidates to receive the Doctor of Philosophy Degree during the June 9, 1978 Spring Commencement exercises at The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. A total of 5,500 students received degrees during the largest commencement in the University's history.

The title of Dr. Brown's dissertation was, "A Comparison of the Governance Structure of Athletic and Physical Education Programs of Selected Predominantly Black and White NCAA Division II Colleges and Universities."

Brown, a 1960 graduate of the former Moore High School, received the Bachelor of Arts Degree from Shaw University, Raleigh, and the Master of Arts Degree from The George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

He is the son of Mrs. Emily K. Brown, 1421 Church Street and the late J.B. Brown, Sr. He is married to the former Cassandra McCall, also of Statesville, and they are the parents of LaTrenda, age 8 and Ken-

Dr. Brown will return to Albany State College, Albany, Georgia after a three year sabbatical leave of ab-

Gabriel Receives Modeling Diploma

Miss Patty Gabriel of 221A Park Drive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman and Clara Gabriel of Statesville, has received her diploma in Professional Category of Modeling from Barbizon School of Modeling, Charlotte, N.C.

The graduation exercise, entitled "Saturday Nite Fever," was held June 24 at the Charlotte Convention Center. The exercise included a buffet dinner, fashion show, and dance.

During the program the graduates made three different appearances. The first session was "Evening Wear in Tablos." In this session, Patty modeled a two piece silk evening dress. In the second session, Disco, Patty wore a four-piece Annie Hall suit. For the third session, the graduates were presented diplomas and roses.

THE STATESVILLE
CHRONICLE

BABY OF THE WEEK

Jarvis T. Bell, three week old son of Jacqueline Bell of 625 Nassau Street, Statesville, North Carolina.

The bristlecone pines growing in California's White Mountains are estimated to be more than 4,600 years old, making them the oldest living trees in the world.
