Knowledge Is For All Ages

By C.L. Stevenson
 Every morning, Monday thru Friday, at 7:10 A.M. downtown, a white headed little woman strolls up to catch the bus going towards Forsyth Technical Institute. The woman of whom I'm speaking is Mrs. Anna Sheff, who accompanies me each day on the bus as I head for work.

Born July 31, 1901 in Augusta, Georgia, Mrs. Sheff has lived in Winston-Salem since 1908. She is retired from R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company after rendering forty years of service, missing only three days from work that she can recall. Having given forty years of service to her job, she still finds time and strength to help crippled and bed-ridden neighbors in her community.

Mrs. Sheff is presently enrolled in Forsyth Tech's Adult Education Program, and at the age of seventy-six she still feels the need to continue her education. Mrs. Sheff received her high school diploma from Paisley High School in 1973. She attended there many years ago but was unable to complete her education.

Mrs. Sheff stated to me in a conversation that over the years, she's grown into the habit of staying busy. She said that "because I was the oldest girl in the family, I had to work and help support the family," which consisted of eight members, including both parents. I asked her if she enjoyed school? She smiled and replied "sure, but I'm slow, but I'll continue to come as long as they let me and my eye sight holds up."

Not only is Mrs. Sheff active educationally and nursingly. Religiously, she's co-builder and founder of Alpha Omega Metaphysical Church of Faith, Inc. which she attends. Because of Mrs. Sheff's energetic and loving attitude towards herself and others, I pray that she will have many healthy and inspiring years of study. Her strife for knowledge can only be inspirational to the younger generation that sometimes lacks strength to continue on. These good qualities in Mrs. Sheff, I feel, need and deserve some special recognition.

Moles Elect DEW

By Elaine D. McCloud

Mrs. Ann C. Dew was installed as President of The Winston-Salem Chapter of The Moles on July 1. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobson. (Mrs. Dobson is the outgoing president).

The installation was conducted by Mrs. Marian B. Wilson. Other highlights of the meeting included special congratulations to Mrs. Velma G. Watts who was elected National Publicity Chairperson at the recent Conclave held at the Atlanta

Hilton (June 16-18). The Hospitality Committee headed by Mrs. Irene P. Hairston, presented tokens of esteem to members who have made outstanding contributions to the community. They are Mrs. Louise G. Wilson, Attorney Harold Kennedy, and Mrs. Louise S. Hamilton.

In a summary report, Mrs. Dew and Mrs. Barbara S. Hayes who served as delegates to the Conclave, reported that the local chapter received special recognition for submitting a resolution commending the New York Philharmonic Orchestra for its presentation of "A Celebration of Black Composers and Black Music." As a result of the acceptance of the resolution, all chapters of MOLES will encourage other symphonic groups to initiate such performances in the future.

Of special interest also at the Conclave was the Friday evening social event at which time Mule Julian Bond was the jovial Master of Ceremonies. True southern hospitality was evident throughout the Conclave. Winston-Salem was among the highest chapters in attendance. Other Officers installed at the meeting included: Mrs. Irene P. Hairston, Vice President, Mrs. Lois B. Hauser, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Burthell Hoffer, Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Gwen H. Ashley, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Lois H. Turner, Financial Secretary, Mrs. Mattie Clark, Treasurer, Mrs. Elaine D. McCloud, Reporter and Mrs. Annie Kennedy, Parliamentarian.

The MOLES, organized in Norfolk, Virginia with twenty-five chapters located in the Eastern section of the country represent both social and civic groups which contribute to national and local welfare. The local chapter was organized in April 1953 and has a total of twenty-five members on its roster. The chapter makes contributions to worthy groups. In honor of the Founder, Miss Elva V. James, an award is given to a student at Winston-Salem State University annually.
