Mr. and Mrs. J. Madison Vestal, Sr. of 848 Crawford Street recently celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a reception at La Terre XXI. The couple renewed their wedding vows before Rev. W. R. Crawford and approximately two hundred friends.

'Kitty Kat' Feted

Gaiety rained galore at Sambo restaurant beautiful private dining room last evening as a happy group gathered to celebrate the birthday of the Twin City's one and only Kitty Kat (Thelma Bratcher). The banquet room was cozily decorated with live plants, and a beautifully set table with delicious hors d'oeuvres surrounding a scrumptious birthday cake as the startled guest of honor was ushered in by her husband, Silas Bratcher and son, Donald. There was no doubt as to the authenticity of the surprise after watching Kat quiz each guest about their prior knowledge of the affair. The entire affair proved to be momentous occasion as guest paid homage to the great lady as she sat opening her lovely gifts. Hostesses for this affair were Mrs. Ethel Ruth Gaither and Mrs. Dolores McGehee.

Willing Workers Visit South Carolina

Members of the Boston Willing Workers Club visited fellow member Mrs. Minnie Thomas at the Westside Home for the Aged in Columbia, South Carolina on Sunday, Oct. 8. The club took along dinner for all of the 38 residents at the home and three staff members. The big occasion was Mrs. Thomas' birthday because she was feeling lonely for her old friends. Members who went were Margaret King, Victoria Crettens, Creola Little, John and Estala Blockley, Audrey Clark and Essolene Hairston. Mrs. Hairston had asked the club to visit her for her birthday because she was feeling lonely for her old friends. The reunion was very emotional, say club members who went.

Williams, Pate Wed

Miss Benita Renee Williams became the bride of Richard Lee Pate in a ceremony held Saturday, October 7 in Mars Hill Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Lewis of 730 Rankin Street. She is a graduate of East Forsyth High School, and is presently employed at the Hilton Inn. The groom is a graduate of North Forsyth High School, and is employed by the Bahnsen Company. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell B. Pate of 302 Forest Hill Avenue. Mrs. Benjamin Hairston, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cecily Birch, Miss Terri Ingram, Mrs. Nathaniel Rousseau, and Miss Carnella Simington. Serving as best man was Preston Pate, brother of the groom. Ushers were Reginald Acker, Elbert Jeffries Benjamin Hairston, and Hubert Hill. The couple will live at 2916 Sprague Street.

SEVCA Student Scores High

Ruth Elizabeth Wilson, a student in ESR's 70,001 Save Our Youth program, has received a letter of commendation for her high score on the G.E.D. high school equivalency test. Miss Wilson, scored a 301 on the G.E.D. In his letter of commendation to her, Chief GED Examiner Ralph Parsons said that Miss Wilson had placed in the "top tenth" of her class of those who have taken the since 1969. "Ruth is a super student!" said Delores Lassiter, a counselor-coordinator for 70,001. "I have really enjoyed working with her." Ruth took the pre-test GED at 70,001, and then with encouragement from her grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Charles L. Wilson of Kernersville, she took the GED after only a few weeks preparation. "I could have gotten higher if I had studied," she said. Ruth is presently employed as a cook at Kernersville, but she plans to enroll in Forsyth Tech major in Early Childhood Education. She hopes to go on to college and to pursue a career as a drug counselor.
