FUNKADELIC—"One Nation Under A Groove"
With "One Nation Under A Groove" crossing over, precluding the air-waves and keeping everyone in suspense for a month, FUNKADELIC released (a while back) it's latest in Pop and Funk. Many local shops had a hard time keeping it in stock. The album has a good spread (timing) and contains one cut that I cannot rewrite. The title of that gruesomely worded side concludes in a unison choir echoed chant of "fried ice cream is a reality". The first cut is housed in straight up jamming funk surrounded in tricky electronics that function as boosters to the ear. Loud ISLEY handclaps and a bumpy cow bell keep the feet (or ears) from "failing" throughout the song. "Into You Now" also is receiving air-play and has that unmistakable deep "DRAMATIC styled lead Bass voice. Also to be noted is the chord progressions and background vocals of that early seventies DRAMATIC sound. The LP is crossing over into REAGGAE and ROCK influences. The rock piece "Who Says A Funk Band" goes directly back to JIMI HENDRIX and SLY STONE with its pulsating rhythm and HENDRIX derived guitar licks. CLINTON is great.

Best Cuts: One Nation, Into You, Cholly, Enema Squad.

NOTES OF THE WEEK...
The pending lawsuit in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York between THOMAS G. STUART and WILLIAM

COLLINS might be stretching BOOTSIE'S RUBBER BAND to the breaking point. Stuart is charging that Warner Bros. Records and WILLIAM "BOOTSIE" COLLINS have impinged on his trademark of "The Rubberband," following his adopting "The Rubberband" name in 1966, when he recorded a single for Columbia which had minimal sales.

In his suit, Stuart asks damages three times Warner's profits of $620,902 or $970,459 when fixed overhead unrelated to the Rubberband activity is stripped out of expense. He also seeks a "reasonable share" of the $340,000 Warners spent in promoting the name through 1977 for corrective advertisements, and that's the way the rubberband is being stretched.

The newest group out of Philadelphia that's happening, is the youthful group known as CREME D'CO CUA. Comprised of JENNIFER HOLMES JOHNSON

* HERLEY JOHNSON* BOBBY TODD* and ORLANDO OLIPHANT the smooth mellow vocal group has a hit record on newly formed Venture Records entitled "Do What You Feel" that's exploding on the national music charts. CREME D'COCOA was produced by CECIL BARKER and TONY CAMILLO for Venture Records, and they'll make their national TV debut on "Soul Train" the latter part of the month of October.

In the opinion of this syndicated scribe "Red, Hot, and Foxy" is the hottest show in Las Vegas, and you owe it to yourself to see it sizzle. Currently playing at The Silver Bird Hotel for an indefinite run, the REDD ROXX produced musical stars DELLA REESE* and features THE NICOLAS BROTHERS* JOHNNY DARK* LEROY DANIELS* LON FONTANE GOLDFINGER & DOVE* plus others with GERALD WILSON conducting the orchestra.

On the publicity side of things, VICKIE LUCAS & ASSOCIATES of New York, JOHN BRADLEY & ASSOCIATES of Detroit, BUNNY JACKSON'S First Class Inc P.R. Agency of Atlanta, and WARREN LANIER ENTERPRISES of Los Angeles have formed a NATIONAL PUBLICITY NETWORK to give record companies, motion picture productions, and individual artists, actors, and actresses an opportunity to have the best national publicity representation through this newly formed publicity network that covers the country like a glove.

HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE...

Actor/entertainer MAE MERCER has set percussionist extraordinaire KING ERRISSON as musical conductor and co-star of her musical revue "Blues With Elegance" that will be presented at UCLA the last of the month of October.

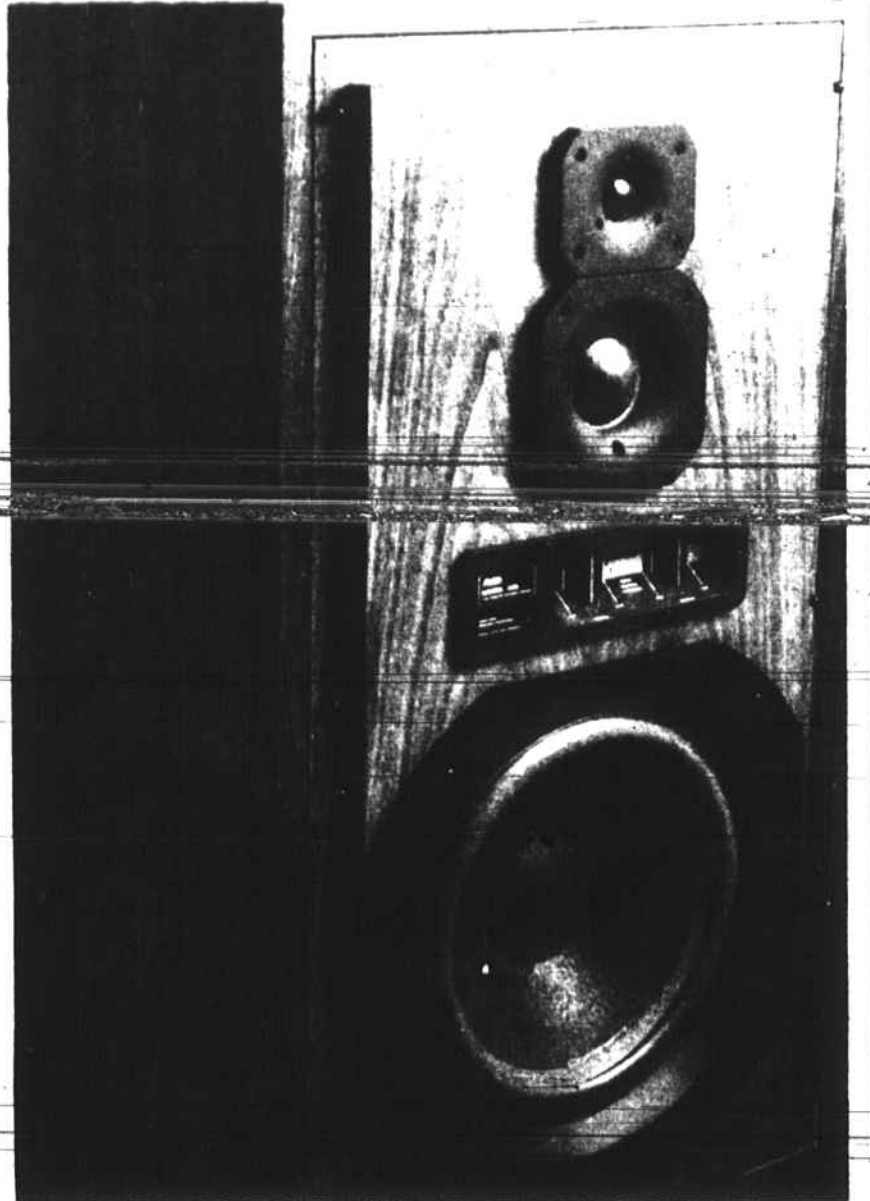

In my opinion the "Tribute To Black Women" by V.R. Scruggs Productions that came off Sunday October (7) at the Boneventure Hotel, was one of the most significant and meaningful awards programs these eyes and ears have witnessed in some time (barring a few technical difficulties with the sound system) It's too bad all of the awardees couldn't be present to see and hear the originality of the production designed to pay tribute to them individually, as well as pick up their placques. LINDA HOPKINS said it all in receiving her award, and we quote, "I've received a lot of awards in my life including the coveted Tony Award.

Introducing Minimum Diffraction Loudspeakers™

by AVID.

In the quest for musical accuracy, loudspeakers too often still suffer from a common fault -- their sound obviously comes from a box.

For the past two years, AVID has been working behind the scenes to make good even better. The result is the new line of Minimum Diffraction Loudspeakers offering greater musical openness and realism.

We invite you to visit us this FRIDAY to talk with Mr. Carter Davis, AVID designer. Mr. Davis will explain and demonstrate the improved performance of the new AVID series.

Special Introductory Offer: Free pair of speakers of any AVID Loudspeaker. Value up to $600 (Offer Good For One Week Only-So Hurry!)
