

Social Whirl . . . People & Their Lifestyles

Barbara Eikner (left) is presented a plaque by Alma Peay in honor of her service and contributions. Eikner is leaving the city to take employment in Columbia, S.C.

Eikner Honored

Members of the Zeta Theta Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho honored Soror Barbara Eikner Epistoleus last Saturday in honor of her service and contributions to the sorority and the community at large.

Eikner will be leaving Winston-Salem to return to her home, Columbia, S.C. to take a position at Banker's Trust of South Carolina. She was presented a plaque at the meeting, which was held at the home of Soror Mary Muldrow.

Eikner joined the sorority in 1976 and upon joining, she was responsible for the restoration of the Rho Chapter on the Winston Salem State University campus. She started the Blood Pressure Clinic at Jetway Shopping Center and the Dental Clinic at the Patterson Avenue YMCA.

On the regional level, Eikner was recently elected Northeast Region Epistoleus, in which she was responsible for historic activities in the region. The region consists of North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware and New York.

Eikner is active in the national council of Negro Women, the Shiloh Baptist Cub Scouts and the Bankers Educational Society, Inc. She is a graduate of the University of South Carolina where she majored in Accounting and Finance. She is a former employee of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company.

In accepting the plaque, Eikner said that sororities and fraternities should continue to be a vehicle for community service.

"I would like to thank the chapter of Sigma Rho for giving me the opportunity to serve with them in the Winston-Salem community."

Rosen To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Rosen of Cincinnati, Ohio are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennifer Rosen, to Lloyd Kenneth Nelson of Winston-Salem.

Miss Rosen is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, who plans to set up an advertising firm in Winston-Salem. Nelson is a contractor in Winston-Salem. The marriage will take place in Las Vegas in April.

Nelson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Benny Nelson of Winston-Salem.

Bethea Gets Job

Mary Bethea of Forest Well Avenue was recently employed at Southern Bell Telephone Company as a repair clerk. She will be working in a new department which was recently established ascertaining all of North Carolina as main headquarters.

The department will be used to receive telephone complaints, computerizing the problems and locations to insure accurate and prompt corrections of errors.

Bethea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bethea. She is a former employee of the National Safety Council of Chicago, Ill. and Hanes Hosiery here in Winston-Salem.

She is a 1971 graduate of Atkins Senior High School and attended Forsyth Technical Institute as a clerk typist. She also attended the Washington School for Secretaries in Washington, N.C.

Ques Give Git-Down

Psi Phi Chapter, Omega Psi Phi fraternity, Inc. sponsored the Omega-Git-Down at the M.C. Benton Convention Center Feb 10 for the benefit of its scholarship fund.

A few days after one of the worst snows in recent years, the roads and weather permitted 400 persons to enjoy the music of The Ebony Company, featuring Cynthia Duncan on vocals.

During the middle of a dull season of a few dances, the Omegas gave the public an opportunity to enjoy an evening out with their wives and sweethearts in celebration of Valentine's Day.

The chapter's social committee was responsible for planning and implementing the dance. Members of the committee are: Frederick Douglas (chairman), Dr. William H. Hoffer, Talmadge C. Tabb (Tillman, Virgil G. Simpson (Basileus), and William Spaulding.

Members of the scholarship committee assisted with implementation by serving in various capacities at the dance. This committee includes: Joseph O. Lowry, Howard L. Shaw, Edwin L. Patterson (chaplain), and Willie G. Richardson (Keeper of Finance).

Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Victaurus Bailey (middle) receive congratulations from members of the groom's family after the wedding.

McLaughlin, Bailey Wed

The home of Mr. & Mrs. William Workman of 2260 Elbon Drive was the setting for the wedding of Ruth McLaughlin and Victaurus Bailey.

The wedding talk was given by William Anderson with opening prayer given by William Green.

The bride is a graduate of Westfield High School in Westfield, N.J. She also attended St. Augustine's College. A former Chronicle employee, she is now employed by First Citizens Bank. Her mother is Mrs. Frances Rand Furham of Westfield, New Jersey.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Velmar Faison and Mr. George Manuel, and the grandson of Mrs. Lethea Manuel. He is a graduate of Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem State University. He is employed at AMP Corporation.

Mrs. Jerry James was the bride's attendant and Mr. Terron Bailey was his brother's best man.

The couple and guests dined on a festive meal prepared for the reception which was given by Lenora Edwards, Shirley Myers, and Melba Lindsay.

Out of town guests included the groom's mother, Mrs. Velmar Faison of New York and cousin of the groom, Mrs. Carolyn Baily Stewart of Maryland.
