'Feelings' 26th Show

"Feelings," a musical talent review conceived by Harry D. ("Mr. Music") Wheeler and staged and choreographed by Steiv Semien, the New York-based dancer who last summer directed the enormously successful Winston-Salem production of "Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope," will be presented Friday, March 2, at 8 p.m. in the K.R. Williams Auditorium at Winston-Salem State University.

Urban Arts director Dorothy Graham-Wheeler who arranged last summer for Semien to return and direct the 26th annual variety show and talent revue, announced today that this year's show will be dedicated to Wheeler, who originated the show in the early '50's and has continued it to serve talented youth in the community ever since. Wheeler, though somewhat confined, she said, is still a driving force behind the production, and his band, Jazz Trans-It, will be featured again this year.

In past years, the annual talent show has drawn entirely on hometown talent, selected by audition. This year, with Semien imported as choreographer, the idea of bringing in dancers, actors and singers who are students at the North Carolina School of the Arts was a natural outgrowth of their participation last summer in the downtown musical comedy production.

Sounds By Joey Daniels

The Coliseum at Winston-Salem was about three fourths full around 9:10 when the MC introduced the opening group, Cameo. The already bored crowd was hit hard with a short introduction and was immediately frenzied as the band who appeared at the Coliseum one year ago (also with the Barkays) in January performed their latest hit single, "Insane" and continued on with an action-packed, acrobatic show.

Peaches and Herb, a European act until their smash hit, "Shake Your Groove Thing" was not too appealing. Peaches sang more than Herb and did quite a few arrangements of other artists (I'm Every Woman, Do You Think I'm Sexy). The band was tight but very weak.

Even the current hit was minus a little "get up and go." The Barkays have added money in their stage effects including lighting fixtures, flashing name signs and Hi Risers for the Drummer and two Key boardists.

The opening bomb, the drum solo and two flaming towers were obviously techniques that come all too soon after viewing them six times in one year.

Chuch Brown was still in L.A. and as a result didn't appear. He is however scheduled to join the two week tour on its second night (ours was the first) at the Capitol Centre.

European Act Not Ready for U.S. Audience

Performing in Europe can be one of the most promising moves in a musician's career. The audience response (even if you don't sing or speak their language) is completely the opposite of the States.

Our sophisticated technology has spoiled our keen senses and therefore has teased and hypnotized us (some of us). American rock acts employ fancy lights with bombs, landing space ships, guillotine stunts, snakes and other assorted "hype oriented" mechanisms.

To survive the European circuit, the only ingredient needed is music. No fancy clothes, no elaborate lights, simply music. "If you've got the guts to get up on the stage, you deserve the respect to be heard," is the manner of their thinking.

This is the reason for the recent success stories behind those stars (Peaches & Herb, Edwin Starr and others) of the sixties who weren't successful with on-going contracts and took their material and talent abroad.

Peaches & Herb's landing a chart buster performance. Winston-Salem saw and felt the results of this mistake and not many, if any, were satisfied with the "dynamic duo's" performance.

WEEK BEGINNING: MARCH 1, 1979

AQUARIUS — January 21 - February 19
Week is off to a homey, happy, romantic start, with love and laughter warming the March chill. Some doubts over friend's loyalty. Local travel is highlighted on weekend.

PISCES — February 20 - March 20
Your home proves a source of contentment — for everyone. Expect to run a drop-in center all week. Social pressures tighten on the weekend. Monday is right for advancement.

ARIES — March 21 - April 20
The present emphasis is on ideas. Put them to work — hard work — especially money-making inspirations. Be more than careful when signing papers. Discuss health concerns and romantic worries.

TAURUS — April 21 - May 22
March comes in like a lamb — it's a playful week. A tiny adventure can provide an enormous lift. Watch diet on weekend — there are more temptations than usual.

GEMINI — May 23 - June 21
Possible setback in prestige can get you a little moody. Best plan is to take stock — don't skirt the situation. Surprise news provides chuckles. Be trusting in romance.

CANCER — June 22 - July 22
Don't feel you have to be terribly original. Tried and true is the best course, especially in the office. Weekend favors an elegant entertainment. Hunches are strong Tuesday-Wednesday.

LEO — July 23 - August 22
Marvelous buying and selling opportunities all week — you can make a profit out of spring cleaning. Meditation and philosophizing are favored — as are postponements and sudden changes.

VIRGO — August 23 - September 22
Romantic setback — but it's a brief one. Avoid brooding. Use spare time for doing what you've been putting off — for months. Children influence your weekend plans.

LIBRA — September 23 - October 22
A week of extremes. Friends are more than helpful, but colleagues can be difficult. Moods — your own, and your loved ones' — can fluctuate from passionate to chilly.

SCORPIO — October 23 - November 21
Social calendar features a combination of thrilling occasions and boring events. Ideas are exciting — but don't spill them yet. Family debating can get carried away.

SAGITTARIUS — November 22 - December 22
Spontaneity is key to successful week. Financial gains possible Friday — but don't rush to change standard of living. Don't take on — or lift — more than you can handle.

CAPRICORN — December 23 - January 20
Surprise expenses are discouraging, but being in the limelight makes things feel better. Some flirtation around weekend — don't lead anyone on... unless, of course, you want to.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
An escapist at heart, this is your year for turning dreams to reality. But it means hard work, and perhaps a personal sacrifice. In the coming months — particularly through the fall — read between all the lines.
