Housekeeper of The Year

Mrs. Betty Dubose of 1413 Bacon Street was selected "housekeeper of the Year" at Forsyth Memorial Hospital. She is shown above (left) receiving an engraved plaque from Mrs. Onelda Dease, president of the National Executive Housekeepers Association.

Mrs. Dubose, a 10-year employee of the hospital, was one of 14 employees in the 119-member Housekeeping Department to be nominated and rated by their supervisors on attendance, attitude, cooperation, work performance and appearance.

Wheeler Tribute Honors Mr. Music

The former students of Harry D. Wheeler and friends of the honoree will honor him in a musical tribute on Sunday, Sept. 30, 6 p.m. at the M. C. Benton Convention Center.

Former students, co-workers, friends and anyone who has enjoyed and appreciated the contributions, services, performances, music and fellowship of Mr. Wheeler are cordially invited to this gala affair.

The planning committee's goal is to make it possible to send Mr. & Mrs. H. D. Wheeler on an all-expenses paid trip to New Orleans, La. Contributions may be made to: H.D. Wheeler Tribute and sent to Mrs. Betty Hanes, P. O. Box 3099, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27104 or brought directly to the tribute program and given to Mrs. Hanes.

Harry D. Wheeler

A special feature of the program will be a slide presentation of Mr. Wheeler, from childhood to his recent retirement. This presentation was prepared by Beauford Bailey, Dr. Fred D. Tanner and Mrs. Dorothy G. Wheeler.

A tribute ensemble will provide music for the program. Bernard T. Foy, coordinator of music for the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools is chairman of the music committee.

WHO WANTED HIM DEAD?

Was it Carlos, the psychotic gunman who resented his power, Pete, his trusted lieutenant; Butch, the Korean boy he had almost beaten to death; or Peggy, the heroin addicted whore? This is "a brilliant first novel not to be missed!"
