

Rhythmic Choir

The Rhythmic Choir of the Peoples Congregational Church, Washington, D.C., one of the most celebrated liturgical dance choirs in America, will make its premiere Winston-Salem appearance Saturday, Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. in the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium on the Winston-Salem State University campus.

The goal of the Rhythmic Choir is to promote spiritual growth and to help lead others to new dimensions of religious worship. Backed by professional musicians, this dynamic, youthful ensemble has earned enthusiastic praise for its striking visual and choreographic display. The choir, along with its founder-director Velma Addison, a WSSU honors graduate, is being

Neo-Black

Mrs. Catherine Pankey, will sponsor the Neo-Black Society Gospel Choir of UNC-G of Greensboro, Sunday, Nov. 11 at 4 p.m. at First Calvary Baptist Church, 401 N. Woodland Ave. for the Junior Missionary. Everyone is cordially invited.

District Three

District Three of the N.C. Nurses Association will meet Thursday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church. The program for the day will be "Nutrition for schoolage children and the School Lunch Program," by Dr. Lou Coffin.

Chi Chi Chapter

Members of the Chi Chi Chapter of the Ci Eta Phi Sorority are giving a pre-Thanksgiving dinner and social hour for the brother and sisters of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Winston-Salem Nov. 16 at 6 p.m. at the Miller Park Recreation Center.

The dinner is in celebration of "The International Year of the Child." Food and entertainment will be provided by the members of Chi Chi Chapter.

Camera

From Page 4

Truitt

E.J. Evans -- "They have all kinds of attitudes, but I guess we're seeing more people because of the gas situation."

Arthur Kenner -- "It has changed due to the fact that public transit is becoming a necessity over and above what it was before due to the energy crisis. Most people need more transit. Our revenues are higher than ever before so someone is riding who wasn't riding before."

George Truitt -- "The transportation has improved to a certain extent, but a lot of white people still believe this is still operated totally by blacks... they still think it's operated by Safe Bus. But it's operated by city taxes and the more people using it, the easier it is on the tax dollars."

Edgar Dyer

Funeral services for Mr. Edgar Dyer of Tri City Rest Home, Kernersville, were held Saturday at 4:00 p.m. from the Chapel of Forsyth Funeral Home with the Rev. Warnie C. Hay officiating and burial followed in Odd Fellows Cemetery.

The family left from the home of the brother and sister-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. George Dyer, 1204 West 14th St. at 3:45 p.m. enroute to the chapel for final rites.

(FORSYTH FUNERAL DIRECTORS)

Samuel Jeffries

Funeral services for Mr. Samuel Jeffries of 1335 Motor Road were held Saturday at 1:00 p.m. in the Chapel of Forsyth Funeral Home with the Rev. Luther H. Jones officiating. Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery.

The procession left from the home of an uncle, Mr. A.S. Smoot of 1203 East 21st Street enroute to the Chapel. (FORSYTH FUNERAL DIRECTORS)

Obituaries

Thelma Fuller

Mrs. Thelma Rookard Fuller, 79, of 2032 Broomfield Drive passed away Thursday Nov. 1st at the Winston-Salem Convalescent Center after an extended period of illness. She was of the Methodist Faith.

Surviving are five sisters: Mrs. Fannie Alexander and Mrs. Gertrude Brooks -- both of this city; Mrs. Eloise Cannon of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Myrtle Hunter and Mrs. Jumell Drummond of this city; one sister-in-law, four grandchildren one great granddaughter, a host of neices, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral service will be held Sunday at 1:00 p.m. from the chapel of Forsyth. The family will meet with friends Saturday from 6-7 p.m. at the Funeral Home. (FORSYTH FUNERAL DIRECTORS)

Willie Davis

Mr. Willie Walsler Davis, of 4547 Reidsville Road, died Thursday, Nov. 1, at Forsyth Memorial Hospital. Funeral Services were conducted Monday, Nov. 5 at United Metropolitan Baptist Church at 4:00 p.m., with Rev. J. Donald Ballard officiating. Mr. Davis was born in Davie County and had lived in Winston-Salem for the past 60 years. He was a member of United Metropolitan Baptist Church and was retired from the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company Plant #64.

Mr. Davis served on the church's Gospel Choir and the Men's Chorus. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mildred Davis; a son and daughter-in-law, Robert L. and Essie Davis, of Los Angeles, California; two sisters Mrs. Evelyn Sheek and Mrs. Eugenie Dull, both of Winston-Salem; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Neal and Mrs. Gratha Scales both of Winston-Salem; three grandchildren and numerous friends. (HOWARD-ROBINSON)

Why are so many people using Wachovia Teller II when the bank is open?

The answer is, convenience. To some, it's the convenience of not having to write a check. To others, it's just the convenience of not having to go inside the bank lobby.

Teller II is truly the banking machine for people who don't like machines. It can handle just about any banking service you may need. Quickly, easily and conveniently.

So, when you have banking to do after hours, or on weekends or holidays, by all means use Teller II. But don't forget that you can use it during banking hours as well. Give it a try, this week.

When you bank at Wachovia, you can always use Teller II.

*Teller II is registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by The Wachovia Corporation. Member FDIC.

