

Grand Lodge Convention

Newly elected Grand Master William A. Clements accepts congratulations from fellow masons as the 110th session closed. Howard Ward of Winston-Salem looks on.

$6,000 on behalf of the organization to Mrs. Herbert Bell Shaw, widow of deceased Grand Master Bishop Shaw, who began a scholarship fund at Livingstone College with $5,000 of his own money several years ago. In accepting the award, Mrs. Shaw said that the scholarship fund, used primarily for needy students from out of the country who wish to attend Livingstone, yet we are unable to because of finances, was something that the Bishop had always cherished. During the special awards ceremony concluding the banquet, Johnny O. Williams of St. Anna Lodge in Raleigh was named secretary of the year. Deputy of the year was Ullis N. Dawson of the 4th District in Goldsboro.
