Beauticians Honored

Members of the Winston-Salem Beauticians Chapter No. 2, were honored during the club's annual "Formal Invitational Ball," held Dec. 26, at the M.C. Benton, Jr., Convention and Civic Center.

Alice Faye Hawkins, owner of Hawkins' House of Beauty was crowned "Beautician of the Year." Second place was awarded to Mildred Williams and Annie Leak won third place.

Ida Johnson was voted "Miss Congeniality."

The dance committee was chaired by Essie Lennor and Barbara Wardlow and other activities during the evening were planned by Mary Holmes, Othello Carter and Ms. Wardlow.

The 74 active beauticians and their guests were entertained by the Bill Bright Jazz Combo. Individuals honored were escorted by members of the Swainners Drill Team.

Alice Faye Hawkins was crowned "Beautician of the Year".

Local Omegas Working and Serving

Psi Phi Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. were well represented at the 60th Grand Conclave of the fraternity, held in San Francisco, California in late December.

Rev. T. Maurice Huntley, pastor of St. Andrews United Methodist Church was re-elected Grand Chaplain of the national fraternity. Howard L. Shaw was Psi Phi's official delegate to the conclave. His report was given at the January meeting of the chapter, and highly applauded. Others from the area, attending the conclave included Mr. & Mrs. Talmadge C. Tillman, Mr. & Mrs. Joseph O. Lowery, Mrs. Howard L. Shaw (Modine) and delegates from Winston-Salem State University (Mu Epsilon) and Wake Forest University

(Lambda Eta).

The chapter recently implemented a "warm clothing" drive and contributed all items to the Crisis Control Ministry. Members of the fraternity and Lampados Club (pledgees) participated in this effort. The Lampados recently completed a "blanket" project and contributed them to Crisis Control. Rev. T. Maurice Huntley is chairman of the Social Action, responsible for the warm clothing drive. Others serving on the committee were: Billy Friende, Richard Archia, Roland Hayes, Harold Kennedy (all attorneys), Virgil G. Simpson and Dr. William H. Hoffer, Jr. (basileus). Victor Johnson is dean of the pledge club, responsible for the blanket drive.

The chapter will have its February meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 11, 8:00 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge on 14th Street, near Highland Avenue. All Omega men in the area are invited to come and participate.

The chapter will sponsor its annual scholarship "Valentine Jam" on Friday, February 13 at the M.C. Benton Convention Center. Tickets may be secured from any active Omega man. Music for the dance will be furnished by "The Ebony Company." Virgil G. Simpson and Frederick Douglas are co-chairmen.

Others on the Social Committee are: Clyde Davis, Victor Johnson, R.J. Plummer, James Rousseau, Robert Harrison and Lemuel L. Johnson.

Host committee members for the February meeting are: Robert Harrison, Norman King, Dr. J. Raymond Oliver, Roy Phillips, R.J. Plummer and James Rousseau.
