The Glow Of Gold

Ray Caviano, President of RFC Records, presented producer Jacques Fred Petrus with an RIAA gold certified record at Warner Brothers New York headquarters recently for the debut LP by Petrus' group Change. The Glow Of Love by Change represents the first gold album for the RFC label distributed by Warner Brothers.

On hand for the presentation were (l to r) Warner Brothers Vice President Jerry Wexler, Ray Caviano, Jacques Fred Petrus, Warner Manager Ed Gilreath and RFC Special Projects Director Bob Siegel. A second Change album, entitled Miracles, is scheduled for a February 1981 release.

STARSCOPE

by Clare Answell

WEEK OF JANUARY 29, 1981

AQUARIUS — January 21-February 19

Accent is on expansion, so learn a new skill or sign up for an academic or recreational program. Week has an exotic feel—reflected in your cuisine, reading, wardrobe.

PISCES — February 20-March 20

An independent streak surfaces this week, as seen in your nonconformist dress style and in your willingness to take on unpopular causes. Weekend offers marvelous social opportunity.

ARIES — March 21-April 20

Postponements are scattered through the week. Your wit sparkles, but judgment may be fuzzy—so stick to lightweight topics when speaking up at parties or meetings.

TAURUS — April 21-May 22

Tense situations on the homefront start to ease but a clash at work might come to a head now. Financial discussion goes into overtime, but you mustn't rush it.

GEMINI — May 23-June 21

Watch tendency to attach too much meaning to lighthearted remarks or casual announcements. A dream item can become attainable if you're willing to shuffle priorities.

CANCER — June 22-July 22

Week is shared between delightful escapist fare and situations that demand quick logical thinking. Older and wiser friend needs a boost and you can prove helpful.

LEO — July 23-August 22

Speak your mind now—the opportunity won't be so favorable for some time. Weekend offers a comic encounter, likely unintentional. Personal relationships improve each day.

VIRGO — August 23-September 22

Friends press you for special favor and you have to make a thoughtful decision. News of postponement might jolt you. Concentration on major task is a difficult necessity.

LIBRA — September 23-October 22

Diplomacy is keyword all week and especially in dealings with an authority figure. Return engagement featured on weekend. On again off again relationship is on again.

SCORPIO — October 23-November 21

Friends, especially younger ones, astonish you with their wisdom and wit. Loved one receives good financial news and you could be sharing in his/her fortunes.

SAGITTARIUS — November 22-December 22

A patchwork week that might include any or all of the following: legal complications, an award or an advancement, meddling neighbors. Change of scene is best bet on weekend.

CAPRICORN — December 23-January 20

Distractions include performing a couple of rescue missions and attending some spontaneous parties. If the romantic road's been a bit rocky, you find that it's been beautifully repaired.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK

Normally soft-spoken and courteous, you also take a delight in shocking people with the unexpected. A realist...but also a dreamer. Achievement in career or academics accented this year, with a big breakthrough possible June-July.

BORN THIS WEEK

January 29th, actor John Forsythe. 30th, actress Tammy Grimes. 31st, actress Suzanne Pleshette. February 1st, actor Sherman Hemsley. 2nd, violinist Jascha Heifetz. 3rd, comedian Shelly Berman. 4th, singer Alice Cooper.
