

Free Auto Check

to save money and your gas mileage? by having your emission tested Saturday 9. The American Association and the Club are co-sponsors of a free car emission test from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Sears Auto Center, Hanes Mall, Winston-Salem. The simple test measures carbon monoxide and hydrocarbons in a car's exhaust system. Cars that fail the test will be given a free approval sticker and those that do pass will be given suggestions on how to correct the problem and thereby to increase your gas mileage. EPA tests show that for those who make adjustments are made, gas mileage improves. Free emission tests will be held in observance of National Clean Air Week. Stopping by Sears Auto Center is an easy way to get your car checked. Even have to get the car) to save money on gas and help to fight pollution.
