THE LIGHT OF LOVE

By Barbara Cartland
(Dell, 249p., $2.50)

great writers have been selected to make a guide to living by Barbara Cartland. The book covers 365 days of the year and draws down words of wisdom for strengthening faith.

popular writer of romantic novels, Ms. Cartland uses words of love for inspiration. She often uses words of love for spiritual appreciation of life and nature.

know that love makes all things equal: "I have heard

By mine own heart this joyous truth averred,--

The spirit of the worm beneath the sod, In love and worship, blends itself with God.

Shelley is an example of the thoughts Cartland illustrates again and again. Love for family, love for friends, love for a man and love of a man for a woman or a woman for a man are all essential for being a companion. Cartland points out the "little things" which we often forget, such as kindness, asking forgiveness, admitting wrongs or saying thanks to others. Frequently, she mentions the importance of saying "thank you," "Lord." So often, men ask for things and sometimes ask for spiritual things. A quote by Ronald Cartland reads, "But after all, whether it is worship or contemplation, is only thought. It is man's application, which makes him what he is. There lies the secret of life in cities in modern rush existence. Things leave little time for the spiritual, and for physical benefits is better than not to do it." Expressed further in other passages, Ms. Cartland states that our prayers are not always answered in the ways which we would like and that is because God knows better than we what is best, but we often change things. We must have the faith to make that happen.

The Light of Love is inspiring, a worthy volume to add to one's personal collection, for daily spiritual stimulation. (This book is available at the East Winston Branch Library.)

JAZZ LP REVIEW

MYSTERIES OF THE WORLD

by MFSB

The studio orchestra of the Philly International records company has effectively produced their strongest album to date. In expanding on the "big band" concept, by adding strings, they play some of the smoothest jazz around without being harsh in any of their tunes. The strongest track are Mysteries of the World, Manhattan Skyline and Metamorphosis. Rating:

MOUNTAIN DANCE

by Dave Grusin

Grusin, a noted producer and arranger, has for himself one of, if not the best, technically recorded albums in history. Performed live in the studio the lp uses no overdubs of instruments, or remix of certain parts to enhance the music. To top it off, the session was recorded direct to a two track digital format, which means the ultimate in reproductive quality. None of the above supercedes the superb songs or the musicians involved with the recording which included Harvey Mason and Marcus Miller.

This one has great potential for becoming a collector item. Best cuts: All Rating:

STREET SONGS

By Rick James

Rick is on the funk again. This has got to be the hottest selling album in the city. From the uptempo single "Give It To Me" to the slow and spicy "Fire and Desire," it's a winner. With help from the Temptations, Tina Marie and others, Rick has another hit LP.
