

Key to city given to Julius Hosch by Mocksville Mayor R.C. Smith.

Hosch Reunion

The Hosch Family Reunion was held on July 11, at the Brock Building, in Mocksville. Master of Ceremony was Amos W. Hosch, of Los Angeles, Ca.

Reverend Kenneth E. Alexander, pastor of Boxwood Baptist Church, of Mocksville, gave the opening prayer, followed by a welcome address by Julius Johnson Hosch.

The city's response was given by Mayor R.C. Smith of Mocksville, who also presented to Julius Johnson Hosch the key to the city. The community response was given by Andrew Anderson of New Bethel Baptist Church.

Mrs. Mary Alice Hosch Williams addressed the mayor and introduced the speaker, Mrs. Prudence L. Johnson, who spoke on "Family Togetherness," and reminded the group of the many doors open to them. A Memorial Service was given for loved ones.

Music was rendered by the Allen Brothers, accompanied on piano by their mother, Mrs. Mary Allen and the Hosch Vocal group, who are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Willie "C" Hosch.

Plaques were presented to Roy E. Hosch and Mrs. Mary Alice Hosch Williams. A Hosch poem was read by Mrs. Bernice Murrell of Winston-Salem and dedicated to the family.

History of the Hosch Family Photo's and historical events, such as maps of Hoschton, Ga. were displayed with an album of deceased loved ones who are still very dear to the family, were on display in the cafeteria.

There are a lot of Willie's in the family and a photo of "Pa Pa Willie" was given to each one.

The closing song "We shall Overcome" was sung by family and friends, with the closing prayer by Rev. Alexander.

Gospel Expressions

D'arcy Weathers smiles as she awaits the beginning of Friday night's Gospel Expressions that was held at Greenway Auditorium.

FATA Theatre Begins

Flonnie Anderson's Theater Adventure Project, better known as The Fata Project will be introduced to the General Public on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, July 24, 25, and 26 at 7:00 p.m. at the Wentz Memorial United Church of Christ on Carver Road. You may come at 6:00 p.m. If you wish and dine around the bowl in front of the church with your picnic basket until the performance begins. General admission and membership tickets will be available at Wentz beginning July 13 between 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Any drama student who was formerly under the direction of Mrs. Flonnie Anderson may participate in the First Fata Production, but you must contact Mrs. Anderson immediately at 723-6304.
