Page 2-The Chronicle, Saturday, August 8, 1981

Arthur Phinx smiles as he tries to catch his breath at his surprise retirement dinner/birthday party. Juanita Penn and Phinx's daughter Jacqueline escort the happy guest of honor to his seat

Surprise Party For Phinx

By Beverly McCarthy Staff Writer

was surprised indeed when Marcellous Penn, Ellis over 150 family members Allen, Minnie Davis and and friends gathered at A Phinx's children, Jacto celebrate Phinx's 56 bir-Western Electric.

nominee.

roast of Phinx, who worked "I didn't expect this, I

Rev. Wiley

minister at Galilee Baptist Church.

years. Those participating in the roast were Juanita Arthur Phinx, Senior, Penn, Ella Bell Jones,

From page 1

Touch Of Class night club queline and Arthur, Jr. Upon entering the room, thday and retirement from the retiree could hardly catch his breath because he

The party began with a was so surprised.

Should Rev. Wiley be successful in getting his name on the November ballot he would be running against the democratic party nominee and a republican party

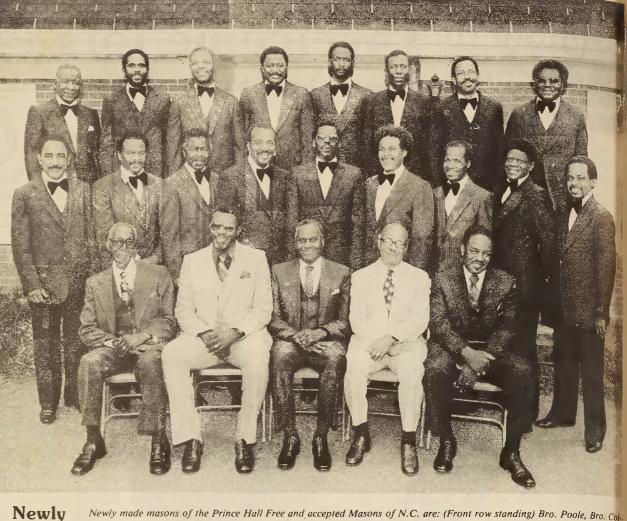

"Running as an unaffiliated candidate I offer alternative to politics as usual yet registered voters can support my candidacy without changing their party affiliations and are able to vote their choice in the primary elec-An estimated 10,000 names are needed on the petition before it can be submitted. Rev. Wiley is assistant for Western Electric for 26 don't know what to say, so I won't say anything," he told his friends as they greeted him with a round of 'Happy Birthday.''

The event was given by Phinx's children, Jacqueline, Arthur, Jr., and Harold Winningham. "We worked on this for three months, I wish he would hurry up and get her," said an excited Arthur, Jr., as he awaited the arrival of his father.

Phinx thanked all those Made responsible for the party and said that now he plann-Masons ed to relax and enjoy life.

Newly made masons of the Prince Hall Free and accepted Masons of N.C. are: (Front row standing) Bro. Poole, Bro. Col. eman, Bro. Little, Bro. Bowen, Bro. Transou, Bro. Ervin, Bro. Eldridge, Bro. Glenn and Bro. Wilson. Second Row standing are: Bro. Davis, Bro. Williford, Bro. Ingram, Bro. Wheeler, Bro. Haggins, Bro. Turner, Bro. Thomas and Bro. Boyd. In structors are: (seated) Bro. Rivers, Bro. Carpenter, Bro. Eaton, Bro. Ashford and Bro. Powell. The new masons will now join one of five individual Lodges and work their way up in the lodge.

Editorial From page 1

is to help change this type of thinking by encouraging a nationwide demonstration of support for black newspapers. This national effort, sponsored by the Black Owned Communications Alliance (BOCA), represents a first-time coming together of all Black communicators. Black radio and television stations, newspapers and magazines throughout the country will be carrying BOCA's message.

Black press has long championed the aspirations and struggles of the Black community. Your support is critical to help us continue in our struggle to present the news that reflects Blacks interests just as white newspapers across America reflect the interests of Whites

All you have to do is buy only a Black newspaper on Sept. 17. You will be sending a very clear message to the rest of the world about your commitment to and support of Black media. Your single purchase with millions of others will be noticed and together we will have voiced our opinion about how we want to be reached and what we think of our institutions. Remember, Buy a Black Newspaper on Thursday, September 17. You'll do more than read the news. You'll be the news

Director of Consumer Afcoordinated the program. Women in Computers.

Sunday evening the participants will be treated to Greensboro.

Public/Community International Center for profit civic and social ser-Training and Management vice activities. Development. Her topic is "Women in Managewomen Gentry is the manager of fairs for Atlantic Richfield the Xerox Store in Chestnut Company, She has written Hill, near Boston, Mass, A numerous magazine arti- member of the "Speakers cles and a book entitled, from Xerox'' program, she "For Us the Living," de- has been a featured speakpicted the life of her late er at the national convenhusband. Mrs. E. Grace tion of the Business and Payne, the sorority's na- Professional Women, Inc. tional director of education and the Boston Chapter of lota Phi Lambda Sorodinner and a play at the rity Inc., was founded in Barn Dinner Theatre in 1929 to unite qualified Business and Professional Wo-

A career workshop will men in sisterhood. The highlight the Monday's ac- 3,500 member groups protivities. The workshop will mote interest in business be headed by Bonnie Gen- education among high try and Harriett Behringer, school and college stuboth of Xerox Corporation. dents; foster development Behringer is a manager of of personalities for all areas and of leadership and promote Guest Relations at Xerox community-oriented non-lota is headed by Dr. ment." and her presenta- Fredda Witherspoon of St. tion deals with obstacles Louis, Mo. Thelma Small of and opportunities for career Winston-Salem is the 1981 convention chairperson.

That's all it costs to get Community news delivered to your door every week.

call us 722-8624 Winston-Salem Chronicle

516 N. Trade St. Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102