Community Calendar

Monday, August 10

• R.J. Reynolds High School will begin its marching band rehearsal this coming Monday, August 10. The rehearsal time will be from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m. All R.J. Reynolds musicians are encouraged to join the Marching Deamons!

Wednesday, August 12

 Options for Living, a YWCA program for women over 50 will present a book forum "19th Century American Gold Fever", from 10:30 -12:00 noon. Miss Beatrice Holbrook will be the speaker. There is no fee. Drinks will be provided.

Saturday, August 15

- A picnic will be held at Clement Grove in Mocksville, N.C. This picnic is held annually, sponsored by the Masonic Lodge and The Davie Educational Union Building Fund. Special programs and amusements will be featured.
- Unity Day will be held at the Dixie Classic Fairgrounds from 12 noon to 12 midnight. The festival will include local entertainment, free health screening, voter registration, art exhibits, concessions and a disco. Sponsored by WAAA Radio and the NAACP.
- The Fifth Annual Conference of the North Carolina Association of Concerned Women for Justice, Inc., will be held at the Hilton Inn. 1707 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, North Carolina. The keynote speaker for the luncheon wil be North Carolina Senator Henry E. Frve. Three interesting workshops will be conducted. Registration will be from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m. The public is invited to attend. Please call (919) 767-7953 for reservations (Mrs. Annie Phelps).
- The Winston-Salem A. Phillip Randolph Chapter will hold its regular monthly meeting at 6 p.m. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Catherine Hines, 1708 N. Cherry Street. A membership drive is in progress. Anyone interested in joining is invited to attend this meeting.
- The Alpha Group will hold a rummage and bake sale at Joe's Fine Foods on Bowen Boulevard. The sale will begin at 8:30 a.m.

Monday, August 17

 The Forsyth County Public Library's Children's Outreach Program is sponsoring a series of film programs on Monday at Happy Hill Community Center at 3 p.m.; Tuesday at King Recreation Center at 3:30 p.m.; and Wednesday at Sprague St. Recreation Center at 3:30 p.m. This week's featured films are: "Winning," "Young Women in Sports," and "Sleeping Beauty."

Tuesday, August 18

• The Minority Business Program of the Winston-Salem Urban League will conduct a Seminar at 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. at the East Winston Branch Library, 1110 E. 7th Street. A panel discussion on the economic and political effects on Blacks if the 1964 Voting Rights Act is allowed to expire. This Act concerns all aspects of our day to day livlihood and the effect it will have on our businesses, our jobs, our representation in all future office seeking. The resource persons are selected from all facets of our minority population. Please come out to listen and participate in the dialogue of this most important piece of legislation pending in Congress now.

Saturday, August 22

 A Voter Registration drive is being conducted by the League of Women Voters of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Saturday, August 22, from I to 4 at Hanes Mall and Northside Shopping Center. Citizens should remember that if they have turned 18 or changed their address or name since the last election, they must register to be able to vote in the September 22 Primary. Citizens can also register to vote every day from 8 until 5 at the Board of Elections in the Old Court House on 4th and Liberty and at all libraries during library operating hours.

860,000 Carolinians Living In Poverty

households in North population living in poverty Carolina with approximate- in 1970. We in the Departly 860,000 people are living ment of Human Resources in poverty, according to a are deeply concerned about report just completed by the how proposed federal fune Resources. The major ob-Center for Urban Affairs and Community Development at North Carolina Carolina's 'truly poor' State University for the State Department of Human Resources.

The report says that this represents about 16 percent of the state's approximately 2 million households containing 5.8 million people.

"Even though this is a significant decrease from Raleigh -- Some 330,000 percent of the state's ding cutbacks in human services will affect North citizens," said Secretary of Human Resources Dr. Sarah T. Morrow.

She emphasized that not only do many of these poor households have young children who need an adequate start in life, but that one-half of the households are headed by people who the 992,000 people or 20.2 are or years of age or older.

UNC-G Extension Course at WSSU

University of North $135 will be charged. Carolina at Greensbogo will begin an extension course at Winston-Salem State University in August as part of its program leading to the master of public affairs

The course is "The Urban Political System." Classes will be held from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on Thursdays in Room 317 of Coltrane Hall on the WSSU campus. The course will tions. begin on Aug. 27 and run through Dec. 17. Enrollmentois limited to 25 per-Registration deadline for the course is Aug. 21. Information is available by contacting UNC-G's Office of Continuing Education at Political Science.

Greensboro -- The 379-5414 weekdays. A fee of

The course will be taught by Dr. William Buczko, a visiting assistant professor of political science. Topics will be: machine and reform government, elected leader- cent) were headed by ship and the bureaucracy, females. urban policy making, decentralization, citizen participation, community conflict, power structure and intergovernmental rela-

The graduate-level course is open to any person with a bachelor's degree, preparation and experience appropriate to graduate study of public administration. It offered through UNC-G's Department of

The data in the report was collected through a Statewide Needs Assessment Project sponsored by the Department of Human jective of the project was to collect data to assist human services agencies in planning for the delivery of social services under the Title XX program.

The center used a stratified multi-stage sampling procedure to gather data from households. The final household selection was made using aerial photographs and road segments. Interviews were conducted by trained interviewers in the sample homes. Interviews were conducted in 4,600 households across the state between 1977 and 1981.

Other significant information - contained - in - the report:

- Whites represent the majority of households (58 percent) living in poverty.
- The majority of the poor households (58 per-
- Geographically, urban households represent 53

- households. Heads of households are employed in 30 percent of the poverty households.
- Only 23 percent of the percent of all poverty heads with 12 or more years ing. of education.

> Among households below the poverty level, approximately one-third are

 One-third of the poverty households have at least one member who has a serious medical problem that requires frequent

North Carolina counties by percent of households below the pov-er-ty level under 10% 26-30% 10-15% 31-35% 16-20% 21-25%

poverty households have living in substandard hous-Alumni Chapter Reactivated

The Winston-Salem Chapter of Livingstone College Alanni Association met on August 1, at Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church.

The alumni roster is now being updated and plans for the incoming year were discussed. Mrs. Mabel M. Paul College of Lawrence-Jones, director of Alumni ville, Va. At which time a Affairs, Livingstone Col- 1981 Chevy Chevette will lege, attended the meeting be given away at half-time. and discussed plans for Tickets for the car raffle can Homecoming which will be be purchased from any October 31. The Mighty member of the alumni or Blue Bears will take on St. directly from the Alumni Office at Livingstone Col-

Plans for the next meeting will include the selection of a candidate for "Miss Alumni" from the chapter, and other activities for the Homecoming

