Dixie Classic Fair Features Cookout

The Dixie Classic Fair will give cook-out experts a chance to compete in two contests this fall, with cash prizes and ribbons going to the winners.

The Pork Cook-Out Contest, open to any male over 12 years of age, is scheduled to take place on Sun., Oct. 4, at 2 p.m. in the Fair's Arena I. Entrants must be residents of North-west North Carolina and will be selected as contestants on the basis of judgment of pork-cut selection, imaginative use of pork, excellence of preparation, and appetite appeal.

To be eligible for the cook-out contest, a participant may enter one or more original recipes, but each recipe must be accompanied by an official entry blank (or a reasonable fac-simile) from the Fair. From the recipes/entries submitted, contestants will be selected to compete in the competition. Deadline for entering is Sept. 10.

In announcing the contest, W.R. Austin Jr., Fair manager, said, "The widespread popularity of cook-outs, coupled with the grill skills being acquired by American males, has prompted the North Carolina Pork Producers Association, the Northwest Por-

Fair to sponsor this third Pork Cook-Out Contest."

He also pointed out that the event will give males a chance to show off their "Chef-manship" and at the same time promote the use of one of North Carolina's most appetizing and versatile products, pork cuts for the grill. Winner in this contest will receive $100; runner-up, $50; third place, $25; and fourth place, $20.

church depts. were paid off, the congregation began to grow, and it was clear that God was indeed moving in Greater Faith Chapel. Not only was a new sanctuary built, but God had given pastor McCurkin a vision for the success and use of Greater Faith Chapel Church of God In Christ. In 1980, the new church was dedicated, and the visions lives.

Church officers are Elders Thomas Nicholson and Walter Ronburts, ministers Richard Brown, Michael Dunston, and Halbert Richardson, Deacons George Baldwin, Bernard Ingram, and David Mims. The motto of Greater Faith Chapel is "we can." Services are held every Sunday morning beginning with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is invited to attend.
