Ministers Vote To Support Corpening

The Baptist Ministers Conference and Associates Meeting at First Baptist Church on Highland Avenue voted unanimously to endorse and support the reelection of Mayor Wayne Corpening as Mayor of the City of Winston-Salem. The ministers said that Corpening's record during his final term deserves giving him the opportunity to serve the citizens of Winston-

Salem a second term.

The ministers also voted to designate Sunday, October 18-25 and November 1, 1981, as Get-Out-The-Vote Sundays. All members are urged to put special emphasis on the importance of members going to the polls on November 3, 1981.

Nelson Malloy has come a long way, but still says that he has a long way to go.

"I'm a religious person who believes in God and believes that He has put us here for a specific purpose, to oversee this planet, and everything that he put here is for substance."

Nelson Malloy feels that black people are somewhat lost, but says that there is a solution to that problem.

"Black people today have no sense of direction, it sometimes looks bad, but we'll make it, we have no other choice.
