Eagles Cough Up 20 First Half Points, Lose 27-20 To ECSU

Elizabeth City -- NCCU contributed to its own demise setting up four first half Vikings scores as the Eagles fell to sixth-ranked Elizabeth City State 27-20 in a non-conference game at Northeastern High School Complex. The Vikings raised their record to 6-1, while the Eagles dropped to 3-3.

The Vikings won the toss and took to the wind. The Eagles started from their 20 and moved to the NCCU 33. On first down, sophomore tailback Mike Worthy fumbled the ball which was recovered by ECS linebacker Calvin Johnson. The Eagles defense held and ECS junior kicker Dwayne Whitfield booted a school record 50 yard field goal with 11:51 left in the period. Central again started from its 20. On fourth down a bad snap to punter Joe Day forced him to run to the 23. The Vikings took 5 plays to up their count to 10-0 with Gray Sneed going the final two yards at 8:21.

Sneed finished the day with 95 yards in 30 carries. The Vikings struck twice in the second stanza. Sneed scored his second touchdown at the 12:03 mark on a one yard run. Again a bad snap set up the score.

Johnson picked off a Gerald Fraylon pass and returned it to the NCCU 17. Again the Eagles held and Whitfield split the uprights this time a 25-yarder.

The Eagles got on the scoreboard before the half when junior wide receiver Victor Hunter recovered a 7 yard fumble by tight end James Foster in the end zone. The Eagles had marched 65 yards in 10 plays to score.

The second half saw the Vikings score in the third period when Willie Thomas picked off another Fraylon pass and ramble 24 yards for the score with 1:51 left.

Central answered with two touchdowns of its own in the final stanza. Junior cornerback Andrew Riddick returned a punt 33 yards to the ECS 7. Fraylon dropped back and hit Reece Carson with a pass for the score. Fraylon ran for the extra points.

Worthy ran over from the 2 with 5:21 left as the Eagles pulled to 27-20. A short punt of 16 yards gave the Eagles the ball at the ECS 33.

Central had one more chance to score after stopping the Vikings and taking over at its 34 with 1:48 left. They got to the 44 before losing the ball on downs with 20 seconds remaining in the game.

ASK BARRY

By Barry Cooper

Q. Can you tell me if Jayne Kennedy's husband, Leon, was ever a professional boxer?--Sandra Wilson, Fort Worth, Tex.

A. No, Leon has never fought professionally, though he has made some movies where boxing was involved. However, Leon did fight as an amateur, competing in Golden Gloves competition.

Q. I'm a fan of Isaiah Thomas, the guard who used to play for the Indiana Hoosiers. He is with Detroit of the NBA now. Can you tell me how much money he signed for and why he chose to give up his final two years of college?--Sam Shorter, Jackson, Miss.

A. Thomas, a 6-foot point guard, was an all-american at Indiana. Sources say he decided to turn pro after his sophomore season because he didn't particularly like Indiana coach Bobby Knight and because he needed the money. Thomas comes from a large, poor family, and has wanted for some time to do some things for his mother. Thomas, who should start this season as a rookie, signed for about $400,000 per year.

Q. I heard that Napoleon Johnson is transferring from Texas Southern to Louisiana State. Is this true?--James Johnson, Quincy, Fla.

A. It is. Johnson, a starter at center the last two seasons at Texas Southern, has already moved over to LSU. He won't be eligible this year, however, as transfers must sit out one year.

Q. Was Dave Winfield a basketball player in college?--John Evans, Marietta, Ga.

A. Yes. Winfield, the New York Yankees' million-dollar-a-year outfielder, was a star forward at the University of Minnesota, as well as an outstanding baseball player. After graduating in 1973, Winfield was selected by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the baseball draft, the Atlanta Hawks in the fifth round of the NBA draft, the Utah Stars in the sixth round of the ABA draft, and by the Minnesota Vikings in the 17th round of the NFL draft.

Reggie Wilson, senior Robbie Williams and hard hitting Stephone Darby as the starters.

The secondary will miss interception leader Steve Gray lost for the season with an injury and they are very young.

The Rams have returned to the days of yester year, when they ran the ball all over opponents. Freshman quarterback Mike Winbush had 115 yards last week while back Mike Ferguson rushed for more than 100 the prior week. Alex Cowins continues to be the top runner. He has yet to go over 100 yards in a game but has been a very consistent performer. Meanwhile the offensive line continue to improve.

Defensively the best adjective for the unit is "opportunistic". Over the last four games, all wins, they have come up with 21 turnovers and three scores. Pierre Townsend continues to punt the ball into orbit and Ronnie Johnson is the leagues best at returning enemy punts.

The Rams forte is producing turnovers while the Bulls have a tendency to give the ball up. Therefore the statistics may not reflect the final score.

Just how close the game is may depend on whether the Bulls are up or down.

In a battle to stay out of the CIAA Southern division cellar, the Fayetteville State

Broncos downed the Livingstone College Bears 19-10.

The Virginia State "Men of Troy" bit the dust for the third straight week at the hands of Morgan State 31-0. "We are still in contention for the Northern division crown," said Virginia State head coach George Moody. "We plan to play like champions this coming Saturday."
