Syreeta Wright

Born in Pittsburg, Syreeta Wright is the daughter of a career Air Force man. Although she began singing at the age of three. Syreeta's real introduction to performing came at age 13, when she joined the choir of the prestigious Mather Academy in South Carolina, where she was a student. She remained there for four years and then went on to win several talent shows while in college and build a name for herself on the local

An audition with Brian Holland let to her signing with Motown Records. Her first record, "I Can't Give Back The Love," penned by Ashford & Simpson, was released under the name Rita Wright and her performance convinced Motown that it had an extradoniary find.

Though recording kept her busy, Syreeta found time to write her own songs, and like everyone else who met her, Steve Wonder was impressed with Syreeta the singer/songwriter. But he was equally impressed with Syreeta the woman. Steve and Syreeta eventually married and their musical collaborations, "Signed, Sealed, Delivered," "Blame It On The Sun," "It's A Shame" and "If You Really Love Me" earned plaudits from critics and the public alike.

Although the marriage did not last, this did not end their friendship nor their musical union, and their continuing working relationship yielded the highly acclaimed Stevie Wonder Presents Syreeta album. Later, when Stevie produced his classic Secret Life of Plants LP, Syreeta penned the lyrics to and performed "Come Back As A Flower".

Syreeta's next move resulted in her first numberone record as a singer: the pognant ballad, "With You I'm Born Again", which she per formed as a duet with Billy Preston. This song thrust Syreeta into the forefront of today's contemporary singers and established her as an international talent.

That Syreeta continues to ask more of herself as a total artist was evident on her last album, Syreeta, produced by Richard Perry, Jerry peters and Hal Davis.

"With that album," she reflects, "I was able to have more input. For the first time, I felt the true sound of Syreeta was coming through."

The sound comes through even more on her most recent album, Set My Love In Motion. Syreeta's chemistry with producer Ollie E. Brown, along with Hal Davis, Angelo Bond and William Weatherspoon, has resulted in what many consider to be her most ambitious project.

Helping Syreeta reach her goals have been her managers Suzanne De Passe and Tony Jones, along with Motown's Berry Gordy, executive producer of Set My Love In Motion. "With all their support and involvement in my career, I just feel that I'm on the right road to doing the many things I want do do", she says. "I want to explore different areas of music and get involved in acting. Right now, I have every reason to believe that these things will happen.

PERMANENT ADVANTAGE

You, White, roll 4-3 in the diagrammed position. How do you play it? (Don't overlook the man on the bar.)

You may be tempted to hit the blot on Black's bar point, but you should resist the temptation. Black is a 2 to 1 favorite to hit you right back as he comes in from the bar; and even if he misses, you are still not out of the woods. You are therefore unlikely to gain a permanent advantage from hitting the blot.

You do gain a permanent advantage if you come in on Black's 4-point and move over from his 1-point to make the 4-point. Few early moves are better than mak ing your opponent's 5-point or 4-point. From such an advanced point you are in posi home if the need arises, so that you are very seldom gammoned; you cannot be shut out of the opponent's board when you have made a point in his board; and you are in position to hit any blot that Black may leave in his outer board as he tries to enter his home board.

Would you like to have Alfred Sheinwold teach you how to play backgammon? A 12-lesson booklet will be on the way to you when you send $1 plus a stamped, self-addressed, No. 10 envelope to Backgammon, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1000, Los Angeles, Calif. 90053.
