YMCA Benefits

Walkathon A Success

By Beverly McCarthy
Staff Writer

People of all ages showed their support for the YWCA by participating in a Walk-A-Thon held last Saturday. More than 100 people participated in the event which consisted of a 10-kilometer hike from the Patterson Avenue Branch of the YMCA to Winston Lake Swimming Pool located on Waterworks

Road. The purpose of the event was to raise funds to help support youth programs sponsored by the Y. Richard Glover, director of the Patterson Avenue Y said that he expected the activity to be a success. "We had set a goal of $2,400, and at this point, it looks as if we'll go beyond that," he said. Prizes will be awarded to those participants which turned in the most money. At the time of publication, Dr. C.B. Hauser was first place winner in the "board members" category. Hauser collected $437.50 in pledges. Christopher Wagner took first place in the "youth" category with $160.00, and Beverly McFadden was first-place

Within The Picket Fence Club Meets

Within the Picket Fence Garden Club held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 4. Mrs. Bernice Gwyn of 1167 Salem Lake Road was hostess.

Mrs. Arrie Wright, club vice president, presided while new members Mrs. Cora Grogan and Mrs. Julia Matthews were welcomed into the club.

Plans for the trip to Chin-qua Penn Plantation were finalized. The club was planned to celebrate its ninth anniversary by worshipping on the third Sunday in November at Goler Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church.

The club divided into two groups. Group Number one led by Mrs. Eva Jeffries, worked on Christmas macrame wreaths. Mrs. Gwyn and Mrs. Ella Bell Tillman demonstrated to the other group how to make needle point tissue box covers.

Miss Annie Wellman displayed a beautiful cross-stitch pillow. Fourteen members were present.

The meeting closed with the club benediction.

In keeping with the season, the hostess served refreshments.

Coker And Robinson Nuptials Performed

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Frank Robinson of 11 West 30th Street announce the marriage of their daughter Zenobia Robinson to Mr. Willard Black Coker of 2902 Bon Air Avenue. The wedding took place Friday, October 23, at 2 p.m. in the Cleveland Avenue Christian Church. The Rev. J.O. Williams performed the ceremony. Valarie McCormick was maid of honor. Dwight Jones was best man.

The bride graduated from North Forsyth High School and attended Winston-Salem State University. She is employed by R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

The groom graduated from Paisley High School and is employed at ITT Grinnell in Kernersville. He is the stepson of Mrs. Hazel Dillard Black of Winston-Salem.

The couple will reside at 2902 Bon Air Avenue.

drama company coordinated by Ron Dortch and Barbara Gordon. After Dortch left the organization, weekly dance classes were held for the group in recreation centers throughout the community. Annually, the company of dancers would produce a "Dance Kaleidoscope" in order to give the dancers the experience of performing on stage in front of a live audience.

After months of practice, the dancers became more sophisticated in their technique and style. After several performances, the group became known as the Otesha Dance and Music Ensemble.

Members of The Otesha Dance and Music Ensemble are Kimberly Williams, Anita McFadden, Sitarian Hawkins, L. D. Barris, Rudell Young, Hashim Salih, George Glenn, Eric Miller, Terry Covington and Vance Salih. Amatullah Saleem serves as the group's coordinator.

A special children's segment will be performed during the symposium by the "Stuido Dance Theatre" of Durham directed by Kay Sullivan.

Dance Symposium in Black '81 will be sponsored in cooperation with the Winston-Salem Arts Council, the North Carolina Arts Council, Grass Roots Bill and the National Endowment for the Arts in Washington, D. C.
