Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Ministry Aid Needy

The Chi Chi Chapter of Winston-Salem is an organization of registered nurses chartered Sept. 23, 1978. Their motto is "Service for Humanity". The National Chi Eta Phi Sorority was organized in 1932. Every year the local chapter of Chi Chi presents several projects geared to the needs of the Winston-Salem community.

This year the organization assisted the "Samaritan Soup Kitchen," which opened March 1981 under the umbrella of Crisis Control.

The Crisis Control Ministry opened April 4, 1973 as an innovative way of responding to the emergency survival needs of people in Forsyth County. Though resources were present at many places across the community, they were not coordinated, often the person caught in crisis was faced with a nearly impossible task of determining where to go for help. The only significant flexible resources were held by the church.

However, personnel at the churches had little time and often lacked the expertise to verify needs or investigate other avenues of assistance. This meant private money was sometimes used when public funds were available.

The idea behind the creation of the ministry was to combine the resources of the churches in one location and train volunteers to know the available help both in the private and public sectors.

The purpose of the Crisis Control Ministry Inc. is to establish a comprehensive system of response, both immediate and long range, to the emergency needs of the people in Forsyth County.

The Rev. Ginny N. Britt, executive director, says, "The one stable element in our work seems to be a constant increase in the complexity of the problems the clients face. The clients fact."

"The high cost of fuel and housing remain the greatest cause of crisis among those who request assistance. With the cutbacks in federal programs taking effect Oct. 1, we fear the coming year will be our greatest challenge yet."

Britt wishes for none of us to forget that each number represents a hungry child, a cold family or a sick senior citizen.

The Chi Chi Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Sorority Inc., wishes to join in asking for the public's support in aiding Crisis Control Ministry with canned food, clothes or money.

Ms. Marilyn Baldwin, administrative assistant social worker and the Rev. Ginny Britt, executive director of the Crisis Control Ministry, organize items contributed to needy.
