people

...In The Pocket

Tim Hairston prepares to sink a tough corner shot on a pool table at the Minority Affairs, and Dr. Sprague Street Recreation Center (photo by James Parker).

Civil Rights Activist Robeson Is Subject Of Comprehensive New Book

published a book on Paul Robeson.

Entitled "A Paul Robeson Research Guide," the book was published by Greenwood Press of Westport, Ct. According to Davis, this 880-page guide is the most comprehensive work ever done on this internationally known artist. The author calls him "A Renaissance Man" because he was an actor, singer, all-American athlete, attorney, scholar, linguist, citizen of the world, humanitarian, political and cultural exponent of international peace and Pan-Africanist.

"It is ironic that most history books, even Black history books, omit

Dr. Lenwood G. Davis, Robeson from them, even associate history professor though he was one of the at Winston-Salem State most widely known University, recently Americans in the world between 1930 and 1965," says Davis. "He was 'Mr. Civil Rights' in the 1930s and 1940s. As early as the 1930s Robeson made his choice to fight for freedom. Robeson declared: 'The artist must take sides. He must elect to fight for freedom or slavery. I have made my choice. I have no alternative....' Robeson fought for the freedom of all people for nearly half a cen-

> Robeson appeared in 11 films in the United States, England and Switzerland. He made over 300 records. He appeared in nearly 20 tist spoke 30 languages or bibliographer."

dialects and was an All-American football player at Rutgers University, where he graduated as valedictorian. While at that institution, he won 10 letters in football, basketball, baseball and track.

Paul Robeson traveled and performed throughout the United States and Europe, especially the British Isles, Russia, Canada, New Zealand and the British West Indies. He was born on April 9, 1898 and died on Jan. 23, 1976.

Davis has written 10 books, many articles and book reviews and more than 80 bibliographies that have been published all over the world. This has resulted major plays in the United in his being called "the States and abroad. The ar- world's most prolific living

Dr. Lenwood G. Davis

Bowman Gray Receives MAP Grant

The Bowman Gray School of Medicine was awarded a $5,000 Minority Achievement Program (MAP) grant in competition sponsored by the Association of American Colleges.

The grant was awarded for a proposal submitted by Dr. Velma Watts, director of the school's Office of John H. Felts, associate dean of administration.

Undergraduate Curriculum Which Responds to the Requirements of Medical Schools," was designed to help pre-med students at Winston-Salem State University become better prepared for medical

According to Watts, a representative from

The proposal, entitled Bowman Gray will work will develop a curriculum Roebuck Foundation, was Development of an with faculty members at model for use in the univer-WSSU to increase the scope sity's pre-med program, she school recently by John D. and depth of content of the said. university's basic science The MAP grant, under- Roebuck and Co. at Hatter courses. The representative written by the Sears Mall.

presented to the medical Clark, manager of Stars

DEADLINE MONDAY

Winston-Salem Moles Meet

chapter of the Moles held meal. Moles who assisted its regular monthly meeting Mrs. McCloud Sr. were Sunday, Jan. 23, at the Mrs. Mary L. Diggs and home of Dr. and Mrs. W.L. McCloud Sr. on Spaulding Drive.

Mrs. Margaret B. Mc-Cloud, a new member of the organization, was presented to the group by Mrs. Elaine McCloud and was inducted into the Moles, after the meeting.

Chapter President Velma G. Watts conducted the ceremony, assisted by Mrs. Gwen H. Ashley, Mrs. Louise Hamilton, Mrs. Ann Dew, Mrs. Burthel Hoffler, Mrs. Ruth Oliver, Mrs. tha Atkins.

The Winston-Salem enjoyed a "covered dish"

The Winston-Salem Chapter Moles is among the 25 located in the eastern section of the United States. Established in 1953, the chapter became the seventh in Moledom. Several members have served on the national level as officers. and national meetings have been held in Winston-

The chapter was sponsored by the Mother Chapter, located in Nor-Mattie Clark and Mrs. Mar- folk. Though organized as a social group, the Moles Following the induction, contribute to the educa-Dr. W.L. McCloud Jr. tional, political and civic joined his wife as all Moles welfare of the communities and Mules, a male group, in which they are located.

Grant Is Awarded To Tarheel Storytellers

Association recently receiv- in 1981 as a place where ed a $1,500 grant, accor- "would-be storytellers ding to Shirley Holloway, could learn how to tell a president of the group.

The grant was given by Carolina Arts Council, area in storytelling," Grassroots Bill and the Holloway said. North Carolina Cultural Arts Coalition.

will be used to sponsor Peoples, Linda Moss, workshops on the art of William H. Roberts, storytelling and to fund the Rumell Stevens, Rachael Second Annual Outdoor Carter, Billy Friende, Nettie Storytelling Festival May 6 Manning, Louise Pulley, and 7 at the Hilton Inn.

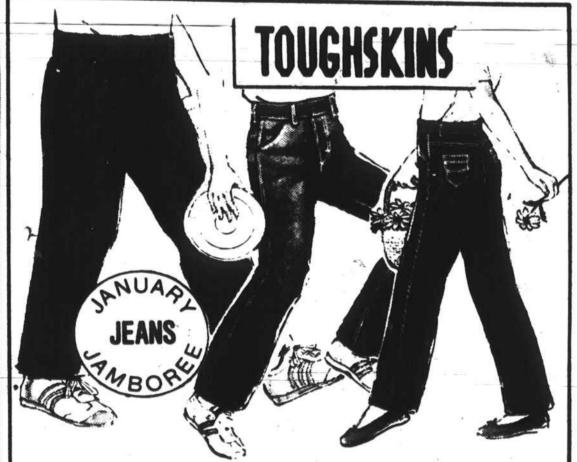

The Tarheel Storytellers Holloway.

The Tarheel Storytellers Association was organized tale."

The objective of the the Arts Council, North group is to 'broaden the Members of the Board of Directors of the group are Holloway said the money Oscar Beal, Brenda Bernard Fore and

BUILDING ON YOUR ROOTS

ALL Sears Branded Jeans For Kids' Are NOW $2 to $4 Off

Boys' Toughskins - save on Girls' Toughskins - save on rough and tumble denims and denims and cords with great cords. Polyester, cotton and fashion styling. Polyester, cotnylon. Reg. $8.99-$13.99. ton and nylon. Reg.

arpet not available in: Cencord, Dan-

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back

ville, Goldsboró, Greenville, Rock Hill

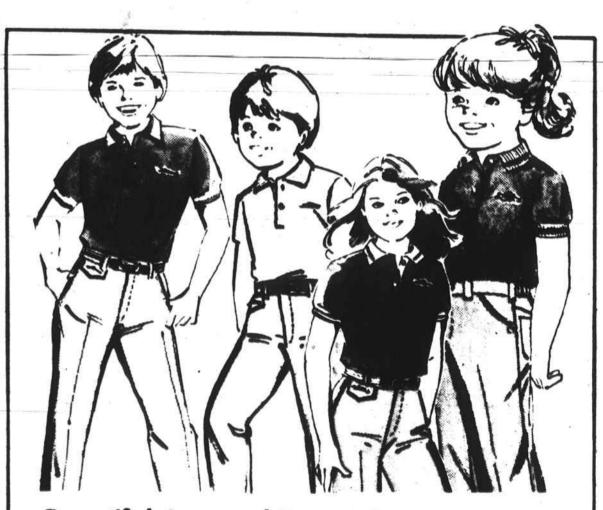

3-Great carpets at Sears are now on SALE ... 30% to 33% off

$9.99-$15.99.

Opening Place looks great with most any decor. Durable in choice of colors. Reg. $8.99. Sale ends January 29

You can count on

WINSTON-SALEM - Hanes Mall Shop Monday through Saturday 10:00 a.m. 'til 9:30 p.m. Open Sunday 1 to 6 p.m.

Beautiful Assorted Braggin' Dragon™ Short-sleeve shirts for Kids '3 OFF!

Now is the time to purchase those easy-care Braggin Dragon™ shortsleeved tops for your kids. Choice of colors and sizes. Shop early. Reg. $8.99 to $11.99 each.

Ask about Sears Credit Plans

Selected readymade draperies from Sears in beautiful colors and many sizes 15% to 33% off

Petit Plume richly textured draperies in a -smooth fabric blend of cotton, polyester and other fabrics. Reg. $21.99, 50x84-in. pr.