Ten local students from East Forsyth Senior High School have been selected to appear in the 1983 edition of "Who's Who in Music."

and directed two original plays. After leaving the classroom, she was appointed to the City-County Library Board and elected its chairman after serving a year.

Hairston has also served as director of the West Central Community Center and on the Family Services Board. She is currently serving on the City-County Library Board. Hairston is chairman of the Vienna Precinct No. 2, and vice-chairman of the Winston-Salem Urban League Board. She is a member of Bethlehem AME Zion Church, where she is a trustee and played a major role in helping to erect the present church facility.

Hairston received a bachelor's degree from Winston-Salem State University and a master's degree from North Carolina A&T State University. Because of her interest in young people, Hairston did a special study on "Guidance in the Elementary School." She has spent many hours advising and assisting youth in the community, often helping them to find employment.

Hairston says of her recent appointment, "I work eight hours a day and I don't receive a salary, but I like to be where the action is."
