

Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Meet

The Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance met with Rachel Austin recently. Devotions were led by Mrs. Clara Bailey and Mrs. Austin in the absence of the chairperson. Reports from various committees gave special insight to the members toward getting involved in projects.

A glee club, composed of members, is being formed under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Leak. The first performance has already been scheduled by the president,

Mrs. Marian Butler. The president and several members are making plans to attend the state board meeting in Raleigh. Mrs. Annabelle Hay presented the monthly program, "The Pause that Refreshes." Prizes for the winners of a biblical quiz were given to Mrs. Daisy Montgomery, Mrs. Viola Robinson and Mrs. Anita Gilliam. Two new members were recognized, Mrs. Daisy Montgomery from Hanes CME Church and Mrs. Alice Faye Hawkins from St. Peters Church of God Apostolic. A dinner was served after the meal.

Antioch Baptist Relocates

The pastor and congregation of Antioch Baptist Church will move to their new location at 5061 Lansing Drive on Sunday, March 13, at 10 a.m.

The Rev. R.C. Wilkins, deacons, congregation members and friends will assemble at the old church on 2712 Bon Air Avenue at 9:30 a.m. The group will travel in a caravan to the new church.

Members from the Red Rock Lodge will line up with the caravan in the west parking lot and the group will march to the east parking lot.

Wilkins will cut the church ribbon at the east door of the church. The Rev. Williams Elder and his congregation will conduct the 4 p.m. service at the church.

Dr. James Branch, flanked on his left by his wife, Sandra, and on his right by his great aunt, Susan Stewart, breaks the ground at the site of a proposed office building that will house local attorneys and physicians. Located in the 200 block of Trade Street, the office building is slated to be completed by midsummer of this year (photo by James Parker).

Masons Honor Hines

Mrs. Catherine F. Hines, past Matron of the Bivouac Chapter O.E.S., was honored recently.

Hines is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Fair and the late John Fair and is an active member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church and many other civic and community organizations. She served as Worthy Matron of the Bivouac Chapter for two terms and as Worthy Matron of the Administrative Council for three years.

Hines was presented a cake with the five colors of the Order of the Eastern Star represented. Mrs. Portia Rivers, worthy Matron of Bivouac Chapter and many other past worthy matrons, including Elizabeth M. Tilley, grand worthy matron, were present.

Hostess for the event were Gwendolyn Williams and Frances Robinson. Ricky Wilson served on the program committee.

Twins Celebrate Birthday

Thomas and TaWanna Amos, twins of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Amos Sr, celebrated their fifth birthday on March 6 at 3 p.m. There were 15 guests present.
