Minnie Ervin (right), chairman of the NAACP Mother of the Year Committee, and Aretha Broadway, committee co-chairman, are completing plans for the 1983 NAACP Mother of the Year Pageant and conducting a membership drive for the organization. Ervin and Broadway are asking each church member in Forsyth County to participate in the drive by nominating a mother from their respective churches. The pageant activities will culminate May 1 (photo by James Parker).

Gwynn Honored

The children of Mrs. Mamie B. Gwynn are planning a birthday dinner for their mother at her home on 309 W. 25th St. on Saturday, March 19, at 5 p.m.

Gems Organize, Elect Officers

The Winston-Salem Gems Chapter recently had its organizational meeting and elected officers.

The Gems is sponsored by the Beta Alpha Chapter of the Iota Phi Lambda Sorority Inc, which hopes to help the young women, ages 13 - 15 enrich their lives by guiding them in social and community activities. The girls are also presented as "Debutantes of Tomorrow" in the sorority's annual Debutante Cotillion.

Gem advisors are Alice Carter, Flo Alexander and Nannie Kiser.

Gems officers are Cheryl Lindsay, president; Vonda Thomas, vice president; Wendy Snow, secretary; Rashawn Reid, assistant secretary; Tonya Byrd, correspondence secretary; Monica Gilmore, treasurer; Kathy Braton, chairperson of the social committee and Sabrena Boyd, Cassandra Sigers and Caula Cook, all members of the social committee.

Other Gem members are Angela Shirley, Aundrea Clark, Catrice Russell, Cynthia Russell, Marvis Quick and Vonda Byrd.

McKnight Honored On 91st

The children of Robert McKnight held a 91st birthday celebration for their father recently at 1423 Thurmond St.

McKnight is a retired businessman, member of the local NAACP and a church worker. He and his late wife, Hester McKnight, often planted flowers in front of Saints Home United Methodist Church.

McKnight's children, grandchildren and a family friend presented carnations to the women ages 40 - 80 who attended the party. A meal was served and McKnight, who is best known by his family and friends as "Papa," was presented numerous gifts.

Best Yet Club Holds Meeting

The Best Yet Garden Club held a business meeting last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ivy Nell McDaniel at 3779 Carver Road. Mrs. Willie Martin was co-hostess and Mrs. Elsie Blackman presided over the meeting. Mrs. Roberta Cook, 4th District Director of the State Federation, spoke to the group about each member becoming a certified flower show judge and encouraged the club to consider organizing a junior flower club.

Plans were made for the club's anniversary celebration to be held in May. The group is also making plans to visit a wildlife flower garden and to visit gardens in Virginia in June.

The annual Flower Show, sponsored by the 4th District Garden Council, will be held June 4, at the Benton Convention Center.

The Best Yet Club is also planning a mini-flower show.

Members present were Mrs. Virginia Stewart, Mrs. Florence Rennick, Mrs. Emma Shouse, Mrs. Ann Moya, Mrs. Earl G. Simpson, Mrs. Sallie Clyburn, and Mrs. Olivia Dereef.

Reunion Held

The Shaw, Richardson and Servance families recently held a family reunion organizational meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaw. Co-chairmen for the event are Annie R. Hairston, Inez S. Shaw and Minnie Jones.

Kiwanis Pledge

Larry B. Anthony, president of the Greater Winston-Salem Kiwanis Club, presented a pledge of $1,000 to Delray Hartsfield, chairman of the Board of Directors for the Patterson Avenue YMCA for its Capital Campaign Drive. The Kiwanis also presented a check for $250 for youth programs at the Patterson Avenue YMCA. Each club member will also make an individual pledge, making total club and member pledges more than $15,000 in the next three years.

The proceeds from the annual Greater Winston Garber/Lash Tennis Tournament will also help the Kiwanis fulfill their commitment to help the community. Club members are helping in the YMCA's efforts to solicit funds from individuals. The club has supported the Patterson Avenue YMCA because it is one of the few remaining black institutions in Winston-Salem.

The sponsors of the tennis tournament are Mechanics And Farmers Bank and Winston Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Proceeds from last years tournament went to the East Winston Rescue Squad, Patterson Avenue YMCA, Winston-Salem Tennis Association and a special fund to promote black youth participation in tennis.
