Book Sale Slated

The American Association of University Women will be having their annual used book sale on Saturday, April 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale will be held in the lower mall at Thruway Shopping Center.

The proceeds from the sale will benefit the AAUW Educational Foundation for post-graduate scholarships and research grants to women.

Donations to the book sale are tax deductible. For additional information, call 788-5234.

The AAUW was founded in 1881 and is open to all women who are graduates of four-year accredited colleges and universities. Its long tradition is one of idealism, dedication to education and to public service.

The local chapter was started more than fifty years ago and has furnished university women of the city a bond of fellowship, and, through its study groups and programs, a channel of information and intellectual stimulation.

Proceeds from past book sales have been used to provide grants for Dr. Linda Nielsen of Wake Forest University to enable her to complete her book. Proceeds also went to Ruth Phillips, a scientist who is working on a major study of the Yadkin-Pee Dee River Basin.
