Lindsey Named Phalanx Man Of The Year

John Charles Lindsey was recently named Man Of The Year by the Phalanx Fraternity of the Patterson Avenue YMCA.

Officers for the fraternity were also installed at the dinner meeting. Howard Ward, Robert Betha, recorder; Middie Glymth, president; John Cuthrell, vice president; Vanwood Banner, chaplain; William Small, assistant recorder; Amos Clendon, treasurer;

Robert Adams, assistant treasurer and Bobby Wilson, parliamentarian.

The speaker for the installation ceremony was County Commissioner Mazie Woodruff. Lindsey was honored for his outstanding work for the fraternity. He is employed at K&W Cafeteria as a manager.

Phalanx Fraternity has operated in Winston-Salem for more than 30 years.

John Charles Lindsey was chosen man of the year by the Phalanx Fraternity.

Sorority Attends Conference

Local members of the Iota Phi Lambda Sorority Inc. recently attended the 46th Southern Regional Conference at the Hyatt Hotel in Birmingham, Ala.

Birmingham Mayor Richard Arrington presented the national president, Clarice Brown, with the key to the city. Brown told the group, "It is time now to make certain that all levels of Iota improve public relations and seek new resources and methods within each area to publicize the great programs that we have for women."

Alpha Eta Chapter hosted the Southern Regionals.

Members of the local Beta Alpha Chapter who attended the conference were Ruth Medlock, president; Alice Carter, vice president; Virginia Wright, regional journalist and Thelma Small, regional representative. Also attending were Nannie Kiser, Daisy Durrah, treasurer; Arrie Wright and Ethel Brim. John Wright and James Mason also attended as well as Thelma Barnett and Margaret Linton.
