Art-Is House Open House Set

Urban Arts, the Sawtooth Center for Visual Design and the East Winston Branch Library will hold an open house, featuring an afternoon of exhibits and demonstrations in music, dance, drama and art from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 23, at the Art-Is House on 740 Cleveland Ave. (across from the East Winston Branch Library). The program will feature students who participated in the spring session of the Art-Is House, a series of cultural arts classes and other activities that provide professional training for the youth who aspire to be professional artists. The demonstrations include dance, drama, guitar, percussion, piano and voice. There will also be exhibits by the students of arts and crafts, painting, photography and pottery. The open house is free and the public is invited to attend. Light refreshments will be served. Funding for the program is provided by the Arts Council Inc., the North Carolina Arts Council Grassroots Bill, the Kate B. Reynolds Poor and Needy Trust and the Expansion Arts Program of the National Endowment for the Arts.
