

The Best In The State.

“ This newspaper, like most weeklies, is aimed at a specific community. It definitely is on target. The Chronicle is the best all-around weekly that entered this year's contest. It's layout is excellent. [Page] 1A includes an excellent 'refer' box, a great layout, and a good mix of news and feature. The inside also is commendable. The paper features community news, a good opinion page, social news, business news, arts and leisure, comics and other entertainments, sports and just about everything else a respectable daily should have. It also has within its pages cooking news, obits, religion news, consumer news, and a good mix of photos. The Chronicle is a people newspaper -- it gets a lot of names and a lot of pictures each week, based on the entries submitted. The use of a series of photos in the two entries was very impressive. This papers sets standards that dailies should be using, let alone a weekly. ”

Not Ready For Teddy

Although he received a warm reception at the NAACP's convention in Boston, Ted Kennedy isn't among Tony Brown's favorite people. Brown calls Kennedy a "trumped-up white liberal" (among other things) in this week's column. Editoriale, Page 4.

The Leader

School board candidate Beaufort Bailey, who racked up an impressive victory in the June 29 Democratic primary, discusses the key to his success and his determination to get voters out in November's general election. Front Page.

A Piece Of History

The convent that sits on the corner of 14th Street and Hattie Avenue and also recently sat in the middle of a dispute over who would be housed there, has a story all its own. Second Front.

opposed by only segment of the community. "I think I've fair," he says. "You see, I keep some candy in here for my friends when they come by so I can give them some," explains Sheriff Manly Lancaster as he does out lollipops to three little black children. "How many do you want?" "Six? Seven?" The children thank Lancaster for the goodies and hurry out of the office to meet their mother. For the sheriff-elect, the pressure is off. He took a decisive win in the primaries over challengers Robert Woods and Bobby Carter but readily admits that this wasn't "the nicest cam-

Behind The Scene On 'PM'

Being a television host means being recognized in public places and constantly being in the limelight of the show. But, what about the directors, camerapersons and producers? How do they deal with standing in the shadows of the hosts? Find out the answer to this question and many more in an interview with Isabelle Johnson, one of the producers of "PM Magazine," on page 10 in the Arts and Leisure section. Photo by Santana

Winston-Salem Chronicle First Place, General Excellence,

North Carolina Press Association 1982 Newspaper Contest

The Chronicle is your newspaper. You can make it work for you best by following these guidelines:

Story Ideas: Call 722-8624 and ask for Managing Editor Allen Johnson on Wednesdays between 1:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m., and Thursdays and Fridays between 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. On Mondays and Tuesdays, please leave a message and Mr. Johnson will return your call.

Of course, although we value your input highly, we can't possibly cover every story idea our readers suggest.

But keep the ideas coming. They've often provided us with excellent stories.

Community News Items: News that is important to you is important to us. Submit your community news items, either typed or printed legibly, to our receptionist by 5:30 p.m. on the Monday preceding our publication date or you may mail them to the Winston Salem Chronicle, Community News Department, P.O. Box 3154, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27106. (They also must be received by our Monday deadline.) Please keep your items as brief as possible and bear in mind that they will be edited for brevity, grammar and newspaper style. We will print quality black-and-white photos submitted with your articles when space permits.

Please be sure, however, to include all of the pertinent information with your article. If a crucial detail is missing and we are unable to reach you, we will have no choice but not to print your article.

Calendar Items: Items for our Community and Church Calendars follow the same guidelines -- and deadlines -- as community news. Please label such items Community or Church Calendar and submit them in person or by mail. Since our space is limited, priority goes to items involving the black community in Winston-Salem or of particular interest to the black community. Priority also goes to items that will be held the week of publication; thus, if Event A will be held this week and Event B will be held next week, and there's only space for one more item, Event A will appear. Event B would be held for publication the following week.

Weddings: Like nearly all other newspapers, the

Chronicle does not cover weddings. We do, however, publish wedding and engagement announcements and photos. Forms can be picked up at the Chronicle offices.

Letters To The Editor: We welcome your letters, which must be typed or legibly written and should not exceed one and one-half typewritten pages in length. Letters should include the name (real name), address and phone number of the writer.

We reserve the right to edit letters for length, grammar and style, while doing our best not to alter their meaning. We do not, as a rule, publish anonymous letters, although we occasionally will use only initials when the writer requests and the editor deems such a practice appropriate. Letters should be addressed to Chronicle Letters, Winston-Salem Chronicle, P.O. Box 3154, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102.

Columns: If you're interested in writing a guest column for our editorial page, contact our managing editor, Allen Johnson, at 722-8624.

Complaints: Although we try to serve you as efficiently as we can, we sometimes make mistakes -- mistakes that many times can be corrected, if we know we made them. If you did not receive your paper or lost money in a vending machine, call us at 722-8624 and ask for our circulation department.

If you have a complaint about news coverage, call Managing Editor Allen Johnson at 722-8628.

Speaking Engagements: When time permits, Managing Editor Allen Johnson is available to speak to church, school and civic groups. To schedule an engagement, call him at 722-8628.

Subscription Or Advertising Information: Call our main number, 722-8624 and we'll refer you to the appropriate people.

Subscription Drives As Fundraisers: Your church, school, social or civic group can make extra cash by selling Chronicle subscriptions for a hefty commission. Contact Publisher Ernest H. Pitt for details.
