

Ice Capades Outing

Guarding Against Rapists

Don't be a tempting target. Don't be immodest in front of workmen, delivery boys and salesmen. A man doesn't have to be a rapist to be stimulated by a scantily clad woman. And too often a lack of modesty is interpreted as an open invitation to advance. Greet tradesmen fully clothed and make certain that when you undress, your windows have curtains that can't be seen through.
