"The second most common type of crime against the elderly is break-ins. Last year at Crystal Towers, we had a serious problem with someone breaking in the apartments of semi-blind, semi-deaf and semi-crippled individuals.

They (robbers) realize the to chase them."

Of equal concern police officials is the creased incidence committed by the elderly.

"Recently we have had several elderly people asrested for shoplifting," says Capt. Moreau. "Many of "And the third area is them live on fixed incomes pocketbook-snatching.
