

Barbara Speakes

Speakes Is Featured

The Women's Missionary Society of Hanes CME Church at 819 North Highland Avenue will head the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday.

The theme for the day will be "Making Mission Relevant Through Love to a World in Transition."

Mrs. Helen Penn will be the worship leader. The Women's Chorus will provide the music under the direction of Mrs. Pansy Wilkerson and Mrs. Dorothy Archie.

Mrs. Barbara Speakes, a native of Winston-Salem, will be the featured speaker. A graduate of Paisley High School, Speakes is currently attending Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury.

She is employed with the Housing Authority of Winston-Salem. Speakes is also an active member of Hanes, the Chancel Choir, the Missionary Society, and is a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism.

World Community Day

World Community Day will be celebrated this year on Nov. 4. Sponsored by Church Women United in the United States, this national observance actively demonstrates the continuing commitment of over half a million Christian women of faith to make peace and justice for all people a reality in this world.

This year's service, on the theme "No Longer Strangers," was prepared by Australian Church Women, who also celebrate World Community Day. Through exchange visits, church women in Australia and the United States became keenly aware of similarities in their history and experience. The service focuses on the contributions and relationships of diverse groups in both societies --
