Christmas Dinner Held

The Recreation Department coordinated the Experiment in Self Reliance Inc. recently hosted a Christmas dinner for senior citizens in the auditorium at Sunrise Towers.

Music was rendered by the students at the Optional Education Center. Later in the afternoon, the Resident Council held its annual Christmas program, while management stood in as refreshment hosts.

A formal disco was later held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The variety of programs was coordinated by Sunrise Towers management in order to reach all the residents at Christmas.

Funds for the activities were raised from rummage sales by residents and donations from various businesses.

Party Held

The Ralph R. Morgan American Legion Post hosted its 26th annual Christmas party recently for approximately 350 members and guests at the Post Home.

Thomas Jackson served as master of ceremonies and Commander W.L. Wright did the welcome. Greetings were given by Mrs. Doris Noble, program chairperson. The Rev. O.C. Nance gave the invocation.

Special awards were given to auxiliary members selling the largest amount of Benson Fruit Cake during the fund-raising campaign.

Mrs. Doris Noble was awarded first prize; Mrs. Alice James, second prize; Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, third prize; and Mrs. Mary Thomas, fourth prize. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Eleanor Little and Mrs. Virginia Scott.

Mrs. Mary Frazier was awarded a plaque for dedicated and outstanding service to the unit.

Other awards were presented by the president, Mrs. Martha Gillis, to members for dedicated and outstanding service.

A New Year, A New Look...

“Very soon, an old friend will get a new look. The old friend is the Chronicle, which, like us all (especially after the holidays), can use a nip here and a tuck there to look its absolute best. So we've spruced the Chronicle up, with a fresh, streamlined appearance and a livelier, more diverse, more provocative approach to our news and features content. Look for the changes in our Jan. 26 "Year In Review" special edition. And let us know what you think”
