He's Making You

There are things in life we don't understand Our life is fashinoned by the master's hand. Through heartaches and heartbreaks, That's the way the bell tolls. God is always there, your life he controls. The Lord is working on you, don't you see? He's making you the best you can be. When it seems like you can't take anymore, remember our Lord, he passed this way before. Through pain and sufferings, My Lord came, So our broken lives will never be the same. The Lord is working on you, can't you see? He's making you the best you can be. He's borne our sorrows and carried our grief, In him millions have found sweet relief. Cast all your troubles on him today, Your troubles will leave, they won't stay. It takes rain and sunshine, to make a beautiful garden.

happy is the one whose sins God have abundantly pardoned.

The Lord is working on you, don't you see? He's making you the best you can be.

Howard D. Daniels

I Love You

I love you in the morning I love you day by day I love you all the time, my dear In, oh so many ways. The way you smile at me, or gently squeeze my hand, Just knowing that you are near me gives me strength to stand.

Ann Little
