13 The Right Stuff

Top-ranked Norfolk State, with star David Pope on the bench but freshman marksman Ralph Tally on the money, topped St. Augustine's to win the CIAA tournament. And, as is always the case, come hell or high water, Robert Eller was there.

9 Killer Bees

As expected, seasoned North Carolina A&T, paced by Binion, Boyd and Brown, subdued young but improving Howard to win its third consecutive MEAC tournament. Robert Eller managed to be there, too.

6 Braves' New World

Alcorn State won another SWAC tournament and moved on to the world of national exposure in the NCAAs. Correspondent Lonza Hardy reports.

17 Winter Winners

Delaware State's track and wrestling teams ran, jumped and tumbled their way to the MEAC's Winter Sports championship, dominating the competition and the awards presentations.

3 Fillet Of Crow

"Instant Replays" columnist Allen Johnson gorged himself with crow -- and a side order of fries -- after watching his CIAA tournament predictions go awry and statuesque Jayne Kennedy go away.
